

Chapter 3343

Seeing that she was scared, Charlie said to Don Albert, "Don't rush to kill, let her talk."

The girl hurriedly said, "Princess Olivia asked us to take Princess Helena...to St. Petersburg, Russia..."

Charlie frowned and asked, "What are you going to do in St. Petersburg?"

The girl said truthfully, "She wants us to go to St. Petersburg and give Princess Helena to the local oligarch, Aman Ramovic..."

When Helena heard this name, her expression suddenly became horrified.

"Aman Ramovic?" Charlie frowned and asked, "What does this buddy do?"

Isaac Cameron on the side said, "Master, Aman Ramovic is not a buddy, but a man..."

"This guy is in his 50s this year, and he is a Russian energy oligarch, worth about 200 billion U.S dollars, right?"

Charlie nodded and asked the Chinese girl, "Why does your Princess Olivia want to give Helena to Aman Ramovic?"

The Chinese girl said nervously, "I don't know the specific situation very well, but I guess...it should be that Princess Helena should be used to exchange benefits from Aman Ramovic..."

Helena said with a red eye, "Aman Ramovic has a humble background. Even if he is an oligarch, he has been ridiculed by the upper class because of his poor background."

"Especially in the UK, he is discriminated against by the mainstream media and aristocratic circles."

"The overall environment is not very good, so his development focus has always been in Western Europe and Northern Europe, but because of discrimination, he wanted to marry a young and beautiful member of the European royal family in order to avenge those who look down on him..."

After speaking, Helena said again, "Aman Ramovic has tried this a long time ago, but many European royal families, including our Nordic royal families, are reluctant to this person, so he has always been unable to do so....."

Charlie nodded and said lightly, "It seems that your sister is planning to do her best now to extract your surplus value."

"Yes..." Helena choked, "Now my grandmother has reached the end of her life, she is about to inherit the crown and become the new Nordic queen."

"At this time, she makes all the decision. There is no one in the royal family that can stop her..."

Charlie looked at Helena and said, "If you don't want to be controlled by the royal family, you can get your freedom anytime."

"I can guarantee that there is no one in China who can force you to do anything, but knowing that you have to consider yourself, your mother is still in the hands of the royal family after all."

Helena nodded slightly, her tears had completely burst.

She sobbed and said, "I don't want to go to Russia, let alone become Aman Ramovic's plaything...but...but I really can't ignore my mother's life and death..."

Chapter 3344

Charlie asked her back, "Then what do you plan to do now?"

"If you decide not to go to Russia, I will have the two women locked up, but if you still decide to go, then go with them now and you can catch the plane."

Such cruel multiple-choice questions caused Helena to collapse instantly.

She cried and said, "I don't know what to do..."

Seeing this, the Chinese girl hurried to persuade, "Princess Helena, I sincerely suggest that you go to Russia with us..."

As she said, she was afraid that her words would irritate Helena, so she quickly explained, "You also know that Aman Ramovic has always wanted to marry a royal princess."

"If you are willing to marry him, he will definitely love you in every possible way..."

"After you have a certain right to speak with Aman Ramovic, you can completely ask Aman Ramovic to negotiate with the royal family and exchange your mother for a certain price!"

"In that case, everything will be solved, and you can completely escape the control of the royal family..."

When Helena heard this, her whole body collapsed even more.

In fact, she knew very well in her heart that marrying Aman Ramovic should be the best solution now.

Thinking of this, she looked at Charlie, smiled miserably, and said, "Since my father died and since I was deprived of the right to inherit the throne, I have lost all support in the royal family."

"A member of the royal family who has no support, in the royal family, can only be reduced to a bargaining chip that the royal family can use to exchange benefits anytime and anywhere..."

"So, for me, if I want to solve this situation of helplessness and slaughter in a real sense, I must first find a powerful object that I can rely on..."

Having said that, Helena suddenly closed her mouth.

She couldn't say the rest in front of Charlie and the Wade family.

Because the Wade Family was originally considered a good reliance on, but now the Wade Family's catastrophe is approaching, I am afraid that it will not be possible to protect herself.

Therefore, if she wants to change her destiny, the only way is to find a new support.

Only in this way can it be possible to get her mother back from Olivia's hands.

Aman Ramovic is probably the best choice right now.

At this moment, Charlie also saw her inner thoughts, smiled playfully, and asked her, "Do you think that the Wade family now has no way for you to rely on, so you can only be forced to choose that Aman Ramovic, right?"

Helena looked at Charlie with shame.

Although her eyes were dodging all the time, she often looked at him with those big red eyes again.

After a while, Helena choked and said, "I know, I made this decision, you will definitely look down on me..."

"But... But I can't ignore my mother's life and death, and I'm her only relative in the world..."

Speaking of this, she couldn't help lowering her head, and said in shame, "I'm afraid...I'm afraid I can only choose to go to St. Petersburg..."

When the Chinese girl heard this, she was relieved and hurriedly said, "Princess Helena, going to St. Petersburg is definitely not a bad thing!"

"I believe you will be able to regain your power with the help of Aman Ramovic!"

Helena smiled miserably, then raised her head, looked at Charlie, and said with great gratitude, "Charlie, thank you...your kindness to me, I will remember it forever in my life..."

"I'm just sorry, for my next choice may make you full of disappointment in my personality, I hope you can understand me..."

After that, she bowed deeply to Charlie.

Immediately, she turned to look at the Chinese girl, and said, "I will go with you!"

Charlie didn't speak, but saw Helena's tears burst at the moment Helena turned around, and suddenly thought of something in his heart, and said, "Stop."

Helena turned her back to Charlie and stopped her figure.

Then, she wiped away her tears, turned to look at Charlie, and asked respectfully, "Mr. Wade, do you have anything else to tell me?"

Charlie smiled indifferently and asked her, "Helena, instead of going to St. Petersburg and marrying someone older than your father, why not try to return to Northern Europe and regain your inheritance to the throne?"

Chapter 3345

Charlie's words shocked everyone at the scene, including Helena!

Everyone wondered, what the hell is Charlie saying?

Is this the typical paper talk and daydreaming in the art of war? Isn't it nonsense?

It feels like one person asks another person, saying, "It's over, the chairman wants to fire me, what should I do now?"

As a result, this person suddenly said, "If you are afraid, you can directly replace him as the chairman and then fire him."

At first glance, it sounds reasonable, but it's just sh*t!

Charlie's suggestion, in the eyes of others, is simply ridiculous.

But to Helena it didn't feel outrageous.

Her azure blue eyes stared at Charlie, and asked a little nervously, "Wade...Mr. Wade, do you... do you have a way to let me inherit the throne again?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Of course I have a way. It depends on whether you want it or not and whether I want to give it."

Helena blurted out almost without thinking, "I want it!"

Having said that, she immediately walked a few steps, returned to Charlie, knelt on the ground with a puff, and pleaded, "Mr. Wade, if you can help me regain the throne, I am willing to sacrifice everything in return for your kindness. Even if it is for the royal family's benefit, it also will not be hesitated!"

For Helena, she has now been driven to desperation by Olivia.

In this situation, she herself is isolated and helpless, and there is only one choice, which is to give up all resistance and obey Olivia's arrangements.

As for the counterattack, it is an extravagant hope that she dare not even think about.

But now, Charlie gave her a chance to fight back.

If she can really regain her succession to the throne, then all the passivity and sufferings of her and her mother will disappear.

This is enough for Helena.

If she can sit on the throne and make Olivia pay the price, it is even more perfect.

As for future royal interests, it is nothing to her.

If Charlie had a need, she would not hesitate to even contribute all the royal family's benefits.

Moreover, she is now full of hatred for Olivia, just for revenge, she is willing to agree to all conditions!

Charlie nodded with a slightly satisfied expression when he saw Helena taking the road like this.

Of course he can help Helena regain the throne, but he will not do such a good thing in vain.

Unless Helena, after regaining the throne, can well meet his future needs for the Nordic royal family.

Although the Nordic royals don't have much money, their aristocratic status is also hard currency in Europe.

After becoming the Patriarch of the Wade Family, he still has to take the Wade Family to the world, and Europe is naturally an indispensable business territory.

If you can have the presence of the Nordic royal family behind you, it will be of great benefit to your future entry into Europe.

So he looked at Helena and said lightly, "Remember what you said today. After you become the Queen of Northern Europe, don't forget your promise. Otherwise, I can push you up and pull you down."

Helena immediately nodded her head, raised her right hand, and solemnly said, "I, Helena Iliad, swears to God that if Mr. Wade can help me regain the throne of Northern Europe, I will obey Mr. Wade's instructions in this life and will never violate the oath!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and asked, "How long can your grandma live?"

Helena said, "My mother just told me that grandma can last a few days to a month."

Charlie smiled slightly, "Then don't worry. You will go back to the hotel to rest today."

Chapter 3346

"Tomorrow you will be invited to visit the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony. After the ancestor worship ceremony is over, I will send you back to Northern Europe."

Immediately, Charlie said to Lord Wade, "Grandpa, inform the Concorde airliner and prepare for takeoff tomorrow afternoon. After the ancestor worship ceremony is over, I will take Helena back to Northern Europe."

Charlie's decision stunned Lord Wade, who was extremely protective of Charlie today, and even authorized Charlie to be in charge of all the affairs of the Wade family temporarily.

At this time to send Helena back to Northern Europe? Isn't this asking for trouble?

He couldn't help but slander in his heart, "What the hell does Charlie want to do... our own business is still not settled, why is he still thinking about the Nordic royal family? Does he really want to go to the Nordic to help Helena regain the right of succession to the throne?"

The other Wade family members are also dumbfounded.

What the hell...!

Tomorrow's life and death is still unknown, does Charlie really want to take care of Nordic affairs without shame?

Lord Wade coughed awkwardly and asked Charlie, "Charlie, tomorrow's Wade Mountain matter, I still don't know whether it can be resolved smoothly. If you offend the Nordic royal family because of Helena's matter, it will be more than a loss..."

Charlie said calmly, "Don't worry, just follow my instructions."

Corran also blurted out at this time, "Charlie! Don't you think that if you arrange a plane and send Helena back, she will automatically get the right to inherit the throne?! If you send her back like this, it will only be to ruin!"

Helena also said nervously, "Mr. Wade...Olivia clearly warned me that I am not allowed to return to Northern Europe. If I go back rashly, she will definitely control me!"

Charlie said calmly, "You just need to do your best to make sure that you can meet your grandma privately before being controlled by her. If you can't even do this, then I will not help you."

Helena said with some confusion, "It shouldn't be a big problem to find a way to see grandma, but...can all problems be solved by seeing her?"

Charlie nodded, "Right, as long as you can see her, the throne must be yours."

Helena felt incomprehensible, but seeing what Charlie said was conclusive, she believed it a little bit in her heart.

So, she gritted her teeth and said firmly, "Okay Mr. Wade! I will follow your instructions!"

Charlie looked at the time and said to Don Albert and Isaac Cameron, "These two women, you should take care of them first."

Don Albert blurted out, "Master Wade, don't worry, everything is left to me!"

Charlie nodded and said to Stephen Thompson, "Stephen, you can drive me back to Sun's house, and send Helena back to the hotel by the way."

"Okay!" Stephen Thompson nodded, could it be said, "Master, wait a minute, I'm going to prepare the car now."

Lord Wade saw that he couldn't keep Charlie, so he said, "Everyone, send Charlie out with me."

When the old man spoke, the Wade family didn't dare to disobey, so they could only follow behind him and send Charlie and Helena to the gate.

Stephen Thompson parked the car at the door, took the initiative to open the door, and said to Charlie, "Master, please get in the car."

Charlie asked Helena to get in the car first, and then he was about to sit in.

Lord Wade stepped forward, took Charlie's hand, and asked in a low voice, "Charlie... tell the truth to Grandpa. How sure you are about tomorrow's event?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said lightly, "Half."

"Half?" Lord Wade looked disappointed, but still grinned reluctantly, and said, "Half is not bad too!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded and said, "Nothing else, I'll leave first."

"Okay." Lord Wade said hurriedly, "Be safe on the road, see you in Wade Mountain tomorrow morning!"

"Okay, see you tomorrow."

Chapter 3347

When Charlie got in the car, the expressions of Wade family members were very depressed, and even Lord Wade felt uneasy.

But Charlie, who was sitting in the car, had a calm expression on his face.

He didn't worry about tomorrow's affairs at all.

On the contrary, he was faintly excited, and even a little impatient.

Because he wanted to reach the top of Wade's house, only the last step was Wesley Drake himself!

Stephen Thompson drove out and first sent Helena to Shangri-La Hotel.

The car stopped at the entrance of Shangri-La Hotel, and Charlie said, "Helena, you go back and have a good rest. At six tomorrow morning, I will let Mr. Stephen arrange a car to pick you up."

"Okay!" Helena nodded lightly, and said, "Mr. Wade, you also have a good rest today. After all, there is still important business tomorrow."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, you can call Stephen Thompson if you have something to do."

"Okay Mr. Wade." Helena nodded respectfully and said, "If you have nothing else, I'll get out of the car first."

"Okay."

Seeing Helena get out of the car and enter the hotel, Charlie said to Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, let's go."

"Okay Young Master."

Stephen Thompson drove the car out of the hotel and asked Charlie respectfully, "Young Master, how sure are you about tomorrow?"

Charlie said calmly, "Full score."

Stephen Thompson was slightly startled, slightly surprised, slightly astonished, but soon returned to normal, and asked incomprehensibly, "Then why did you tell the master that you are only half sure?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I can't let him sleep too peacefully tonight, nor can I let the other Wade family members sleep too peacefully!"

Speaking of this, Charlie snorted and said, "I have to make them feel uneasy and sleepless, so that they can spend the longest, darkest and most memorable night of their lives! Only in this way, when I solve Wesley tomorrow, will they truly know what it feels like after the disaster!"

When Stephen Thompson heard this, he was taken aback for a moment, then he couldn't help but smile, and said, "That seems to be my good night sleep in the Wade family!"

The corners of Charlie's mouth rose slightly, and he smiled, "Sleep well, just don't let other Wade family members know."

Stephen Thompson couldn't help but ask again, "Young Master, are you serious about Helena regaining the throne?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded, and said, "Helping her regain the throne is really too simple. At most, only half a rejuvenation pill is enough to make her grandma willing to pass the throne to her!"

After speaking, Charlie said with emotion, "For an old woman who is dying, once she can come back to life, Olivia will be kicked out from the throne! There is nothing more maddening to them than being able to open their eyes and see the world again."

Stephen Thompson knew Charlie better than everyone in the Wade family.

He had heard of things like Rejuvenation Pill for a long time.

Chapter 3348

Hearing about Charlie's solution, he was relieved, but he couldn't help but say, "Young Master, a Rejuvenation Pill is valuable, and you and Helena are not relatives, why do you take care of her like this?"

Charlie looked out the window and said lightly, "The Wade family's domestic business has almost reached its limit. The next step is to develop overseas. Moreover, the ocean transportation group that I cooperate with Zara Banks also needs European companies' resources and relationships. If Helena succeeds to the throne, we will be in Europe much easier in the future."

Having said that, he added, "And you also know that there are more constitutional monarchies in Europe. Those royal families who have lost power like to hug together for warmth and find a sense of existence. With Helena's help, we can quickly compete with those in Europe. The royal family has established a good cooperative relationship, and future development can also get twice the result with half the effort."

Stephen Thompson nodded immediately and said, "Young Master has foresight, and in the future, if the Wade Family is in your hands, it will certainly be able to flourish."

Charlie smiled indifferently, thinking of something, and then asked him, "By the way, Stephen, Wesley's father, Kevin Drake, should have been a member of the Anti-Wade Alliance back then?"

"It's more than just being a member." Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Kevin Drake was supported by Zayne Banks. He obeyed Zayne Banks' words, and he is definitely a key member of the Anti-Wade Alliance."

"So that's the case." Charlie said with a smile, "So, that Wesley should respect Zayne Banks, right?"

Stephen Thompson said, "Theoretically, it should be like this. After all, Zayne Banks was the benefactor of the Drake family back then, and without his support, Kevin Drake wouldn't even count as a fart in Eastcliff."

Charlie nodded, and said with a playful look, "That's interesting. Tomorrow after Wesley shows up at Wade Mountain, if he sees Zayne Banks in my hands, I don't know what it will be like."

Stephen Thompson smiled slightly and said, "It seems that the young master is already in his chest!"

Charlie chuckles, "Mr. Stephen may not know that the supreme commander of the Dragon Temple in Syria is now locked up with Zayne Banks. Wesley will be in for a surprise!"

After all, he hurriedly ordered, "Mr. Stephen, don't go to Sun's house for now, you take me to another place!"

.....

Twenty minutes later, a farmyard on the outskirts of Eastcliff.

As soon as Stephen Thompson drove the car to the door, the iron door of the farmyard was opened from inside.

Wilfred Elms greeted him with two young people from the Elms family with a quick walk.

Seeing Charlie getting out of the car, he respectfully said, "Mr. Wade!"

Charlie nodded slightly and asked Wilfred Elms, "What is the situation with those two people?"

Wilfred Elms hurriedly said, "Several people are watching them intently, and there were a few people onlookers in the toilet, and there would never be any problems."

Charlie smiled slightly, "Take me to have a look."

Wilfred Elms nodded, flashed around, made a gesture of request, and respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, please!"

Charlie turned to Stephen Thompson and said, "Mr. Stephen, let's meet old acquaintances together."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Okay young master!"

A junior from the Elms family walked quickly ahead and led Charlie and Stephen Thompson into the West House of the farmyard.

In a room less than 20 square meters, seven or eight Elms family members formed a circle.

Inside the circle were two men who were tightly tied to the seat and were covered with a black cloth bag.

Seeing this situation, Charlie thought to himself that it was enough to tie up Zayne.

Calum was more obedient than a dog now, and he didn't need to spend so much time and effort.

However, the Elms family is serious and responsible in doing things.

Naturally, he can't say this kind of words, so as not to undermine the enthusiasm of the Elms family.

So Charlie started directly and tore off the black cloth bag on the heads of the two of them.

At this time, he saw Zayne and Calum's mouths still stuffed with towels.

Zayne looked up and saw Charlie, his eyes and expressions immediately became a little nervous and fearful.

Seeing that he was so nervous, Charlie took off the towel from his mouth and said with a smile, "Oh, Mr. Banks, don't be so scared, I just came to see you, by the way, there is good news to tell you."

Zayne became even more nervous after hearing this, and couldn't help asking, "You...what good news do you have..."

Charlie smiled and asked him, "Mr. Banks, I don't know if you heard about a mercenary organization called Dragon Temple?"

Zayne frowned, and said depressed, "Of course I know the Dragon Temple...you...you let me stay in Syria for so long. There are wars there all day long, isn't it just the people from the Dragon Temple who were defeated by Commander Hamid?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said with a smile, "Speaking of which, you may not believe, the Lord of the Dragon Temple is your old acquaintance!"

Chapter 3349

"Old acquaintance?!"

Hearing this, Zayne said with an incredulous expression, "But I don't even know the Lord of the Dragon Temple... How could he be my old acquaintance?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It may not be appropriate to say that he is an old acquaintance. It should be said that he is a junior to you, and he has a deep connection with you."

"Why...?" Zayne felt very inexplicable.

For fear that Charlie would deliberately find an unreasonable charge to toss himself, he hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade...I really don't know the Lord of the Dragon Temple...Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Charlie shook his head and asked him, "Was Kevin Drake your subordinate back then?"

Zayne didn't expect that Charlie would ask about Kevin Drake who had been dead for twenty years.

He subconsciously said, "Yes...but Kevin Drake has been dead for twenty years...what does he have to do with Dragon Temple?"

Charlie smiled and said, "The Lord of the Dragon Temple is the son of Kevin Drake. His name is Wesley, do you remember?"

"What?!" Zayne was struck by lightning, blurting out, "Wesley...he actually became the Lord of the Dragon Temple?"

"Yes." Charlie asked him with a smile, "Do you feel both surprised and excited when you hear this news? Does it feel like the gloomy life has burst into light at this moment?"

Zayne couldn't help feeling a little flustered when he saw Charlie's eyes were a bit playful.

Hearing that Wesley was the famous Lord of the Dragon Temple, he was indeed very excited deep in his heart.

Because his first thought was that he would be backed by the powerful Dragon Temple, and he would be able to gain freedom soon!

However, seeing Charlie's expression without fear at all, he couldn't help but beat a drum in his heart.

He thought to himself, "Why is Charlie smiling so weird? Isn't he afraid of Dragon Temple at all?"

Thinking of this, he suddenly looked at Calum next to him, and immediately had the answer in his heart!

“How could Charlie be afraid of Dragon Temple? The Dragon Temple just lost a King of War and more than 10,000 mercenaries by his hands. Calum is so strong, but he didn’t have the slightest defense in front of Charlie. With the strength of Charlie, how could it be possible to put Dragon Temple in his eyes?”

At this point, Zayne felt a lot of decadence in an instant. It seems that as soon as the light of hope came on, it went out instantly.

Charlie continued at this time, “You and Wesley should have not seen each other for 20 years, right?”

“Yes...” Zayne nodded and said, “After his mother committed suicide, I always wanted to take him home for adoption, but I didn’t expect that he had already been taken out of the country first. I never found him again.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said playfully, “Then tomorrow, I will let you and Wesley, who have been away for twenty years, meet and reminisce about the past!”

When Zayne heard this, he asked nervously, “Wesley...he came back to China?”

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, “More than just coming to China... and I have gained a lot of interest! Today, someone gave the Wade family more than a hundred coffins, saying that it was from Wesley and he wanted to let the Wade family wear sackcloth and filial piety at 8 o’clock tomorrow morning and welcome his parents.”

Chapter 3350

“He wanted to move his parents’ coffin to Wade Mountain, otherwise the Wade Family would be destroyed.”

As he said, Charlie remembered something, and then said, “Oh, yes, he also wants my parents’ coffin and wants half of the assets of the Wade family. Do you think he can survive against me?"

After listening to Charlie, Zayne's brain buzzed.

He didn't know why. Seeing Charlie's appearance at this time, he had already decided in his heart that Wesley would be defeated tomorrow!

So, he blurted out subconsciously, "Mr. Wade, Wesley... it must be because his parents died that year, so he had some grudges against the Wade family... Please see that he's just avenging his parents, don't be familiar with him..."

Charlie raised his eyebrows and asked with a smile, "What? Are you so optimistic about him?"

When Zayne heard Charlie's question, he couldn't help but say, "Mr. Wade, I'm not..."

After speaking, he looked at Calum next to him and smiled bitterly, "Isn't this one of the Four Kings of the Dragon Temple? It is said to be the one second only to Wesley in strength, but in front of Mr. Wade, he may not have survived a face-to-face encounter, so it seems that Wesley in front of you is nothing more than a man's arm smashed against a car..."

Charlie smiled slightly, looked at Calum on the side, and asked him, "Calum, how strong is your Lord?"

Calum respectfully said, "My Lord is an eight-star warrior, and his strength is much higher than mine."

Charlie nodded, and asked again, "Then, who do you think is stronger between us?"

Calum said without hesitation, "You must be stronger... Although my strength is not as strong as my Lord, at least I can compete head-on with him for dozens of rounds, but in front of you, There is no way to even defend..."

For a long time, Calum's consciousness was banned by Charlie, and most of the time he didn't say what he did or said.

But this time, his own consciousness and his body were surprisingly completely consistent.

Although he didn't know what magical power Charlie used, he could directly seal his consciousness completely.

But he knew that Charlie's methods were more than a realm higher than martial arts.

The gap in this is like the gap between a cold weapon and a hot weapon, and it cannot be crossed.

Charlie heard what Calum said, nodded and smiled, "Eight-star martial artist, it is not easy. In order to achieve this cultivation base, Wesley should have suffered in the past two decades, right?"

Calum nodded and said, "Our Lord is a rare martial arts genius in the world, and there are ancestors behind him. The starting point is much higher than most martial arts people, and our Lord wants to avenge his parents. For this goal, he practiced three-nine in winter and three-quarters in summer, and practiced for 18 hours a day for 20 years. Only then did he have today's strength."

Charlie smiled indifferently, "He endured the humiliation and suffered for 20 years, and in the end only came to die with his parents' coffin. Thinking about it this way, his fate is really tragic."

After that, he looked at Zayne and said with a smile, "Mr. Banks, take a good rest tonight. You have to get up early tomorrow to meet with your nephew, so I won't bother too much."

Zayne couldn't help shivering.

Immediately, Charlie looked at Wilfred Elms and ordered, "Mr. Elms, send them to Wade Mountain by 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. I will wait on Wade Mountain by then."

Wilfred immediately clasped his fists in his hands and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, tomorrow morning, I will personally send these two people to Wade Mountain!"

Charlie nodded and smiled slightly and said, "You have worked so hard, after tomorrow, I will give you a gift!"

Zayne said in a flustered manner, "Mr. Wade...Wesley doesn't know your true power. Please let him go tomorrow because he just wants to avenge his parents and is excusable..."

Charlie sneered, "Mr. Banks, if you do something wrong, you have to bear the consequences. You have lived for fifty years, don't you understand this truth?"

After speaking, Charlie said again, "If you didn't take the lead in the establishment of the Anti-Wade Alliance back then, you must now have your wife and children, instead of being locked up here by me!"

Zayne nervously said, "Mr. Wade, I didn't mean that...I think that Wesley has not had an easy life... He is also eager to avenge his parents and is understandable....."

Charlie said coldly, "His parents both died by suicide. What revenge does he want? Besides, in order to avenge his parents, he wants to pick up my parents' graves. What is the reason? I will kill him tomorrow. But before I step on his head, I'll ask him who taught him!"

Zayne was shocked and wanted to say something, but when the words reached his lips, he swallowed back quickly.

He knew that Wesley had provoked Charlie too thoroughly this time...

Even if Wesley came to find the Wade family directly, confronted the gongs and drums face to face, it would be understandable, but why did he let the words out and pick up the graves of Bruce Wade and his wife?

Charlie said indifferently at this time, "Mr. Banks, you better hurry up and pray to heaven now, pray that this matter does not have your Banks family's participation! Otherwise, no matter who is involved in it, I, Charlie Wade, will never be merciful!"

Chapter 3351

Zayne Banks was frightened by Charlie's murderous aura.

At this moment, there is only one thought in his mind, that is, the Banks family must not go blind and participate in this matter.

It's best to have nothing to do with this matter.

However, how could he know that his elderly father was already excited and intolerable at this time, just waiting for tomorrow morning to go up to Wade Mountain with Wesley to witness the destruction of the Wade family with his own eyes!

At this time, Lord Banks, while eating dinner, ordered a few dishes with chopsticks, and said to the hHousekeeper, "There is no wine for dinner, it's almost meaningless!"

The Housekeeper hurriedly smiled and said, "Master, the doctor tells you to drink less and try not to drink wine, and don't you have to get up early tomorrow?"

"I'm afraid your drinking might cause something wrong, so I didn't prepare."

Lord Banks said with a face, "What day is it?"

The Housekeeper said quickly, "It's April 4th, what's wrong?"

Lord Banks cursed, "Nonsense, I know that today is April 4th! I mean, what big day is today?"

The Housekeeper's eyes rolled, thought quickly, and hurriedly complimented, "My lord, today is the day when Dragon Hall destroy the Wade Family's gate and makes Wade Family face sweeping!"

"Exactly!" Lord Banks laughed and said, "This day, even if compared to the New Year, it's much worthy to celebrate, right?"

"If I don't drink two cups on such a festive day, isn't it not giving importance to Wesley, who will destroy the Wade family?"

"Isn't it worthy to celebrate knowing Bruce Wade's coffin will be thrown out early tomorrow morning?!"

The Housekeeper nodded quickly, "Master, you are right, I will get you wine now!"

"Which one would you like to drink?"

Lord Banks nodded with satisfaction and smiled and said, "Take the best Moutai, and give me an extra cup. I have to respect Bruce Wade a cup! Hahahaha!"

The Housekeeper hurriedly fetched the best Moutai, and at the same time brought two Moutai glasses.

Lord Banks put down his chopsticks and laughed loudly, "Come on, fill it all with me!"

Housekeeper quickly opened Moutai and poured out two glasses.

Lord Banks picked up one of them, raised his head and drank it, and smiled while smacking his lips, "Oh! Tsk tsk tsk... The spirits of the happy events are refreshing, and this wine has become more mellow than usual!"

After he finished speaking, he took another cup and said with a sneer, "Bruce, Bruce, back then you were in Eastcliff, and you were so beautiful, but have you ever thought that after twenty years, Esteban Drake's son Will personally pick up your grave and crush your bones and ashes?"

Speaking of this, Lord Banks hum, shook his wrists, poured a glass of wine on the ground, and said with a grin, "Come on, Bruce, have a drink!"

"After tomorrow, you will be the lonely soul floating in the air and scattered everywhere like a wild ghost! Hahahaha!"

.....

On the other side, after Charlie left the farmyard, he asked Stephen Thompson to send him back to Sun's house.

On the way back, Charlie said to Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, go back tonight and let someone outside watch all the movements of the Wade family members."

"Watch if someone sneaks out to buy shrouds at night, and whenever someone goes out, let someone take some photos to keep as evidence."

"After the Wesley is settled tomorrow, I will calculate a ledger with them!"

Stephen Thompson said without hesitation, "Okay Young Master! I will make arrangements!"

Charlie nodded and murmured, "Wade family, old and young men, the good days have been too long, and the bones have become too soft."

"After this time, it is time to train them!"

Stephen Thompson respectfully said, "Young Master, after tomorrow, you will be the Lord of the Wade Family."

"With you, these people would never dare to make trouble!"

As he said, Stephen Thompson said again, "Furthermore, after tomorrow, you will also be an unattainable existence in the eyes of all families in the country, just like your father did!"

Chapter 3352

Charlie waved his hand and said seriously, "For tomorrow's matter, please remember to block the news about me and don't let my identity pass to the outside world."

"It is not the time to stand up."

Stephen Thompson was puzzled and said, "Young Master, if you defeat the Dragon Hall, why not take advantage of this excellent opportunity to directly declare your identity and at the same time declare to be the head of the Wade Family?"

Charlie said seriously, "Except for a large number of people in the Dragon Hall, it has no real influence at all."

“Look at the top families on Wall Street in the United States. They can control the economy of most of the world and can easily use finance.”

“The law ruins a country’s twenty years of economic construction, and can use Congress to mobilize hundreds of thousands of troops and aircraft carrier battle groups to launch an offensive against a country.”

“This is the real strength.”

Speaking of this, Charlie sighed and said, “The Rothschild family, which is all-pervasive in the Western world, is such a giant, so I want to hide it in the dark first and touch them.”

“Understood!” Stephen Thompson said immediately, “Tomorrow, I will bring people to block Wade Mountain in advance, and no one will be allowed in except the Wade Family and Dragon Hall.”

Charlie asked him, “Mr. Stephen, how many men under your command are still available?”

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, “Young Master, I still have nearly a hundred reliable people under my staff, ready to be dispatched at any time!”

Charlie asked curiously, “Why are there so many? Dragon Hall made a ruthless statement this time, did they escape?”

“No.” Stephen Thompson said respectfully, “We are all people who have received the great favor of your father.”

“Together, our greatest wish is to avenge your father! Even if we give our lives, we don’t hesitate to do it.”

“Now there are people. In an attempt to disturb the quietness behind your father, we have been prepared to fight to the end, how can we escape?”

After speaking, Stephen Thompson said again, “Among them, you know some of them, and some of them are the group of people who lurked in the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute and pretended to be workers in the orphanage.”

“After they withdrew from Aurous Hill in an orderly manner, they also returned to Eastcliff, many of them were just like me.”

“There were older, but there were also some who were as young as you, or even younger than you.”

Charlie asked puzzledly, “Since they are all my father’s old ministry, how can anyone be younger than me?”

Stephen Thompson explained, “Some of them are orphans rescued by your father’s help, and there are also children of your father’s other old men.”

“If it weren’t for your father, most of them would have died a long time ago, including me, our lives, It was all given by your father.”

Speaking of this, Stephen Thompson said with emotion, “Your father has been away for so many years. The reason why we didn’t leave the Wade family is to wait for you to come back!”

When Charlie heard this, he was not only full of emotion, but also full of admiration for his father.

His father has been dead for nearly 20 years, and there are still so many people who are willing to die for him.

It can be seen that when his father was alive, he was definitely a righteous and great person.

When he sighed, Stephen Thompson had already parked his car at the door of Sun's house.

Stephen Thompson got out of the car, opened the door for Charlie, and said respectfully, "Young Master, take a good rest tonight and recharge your energy."

"Other trivial matters will be handled properly next time!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded slightly, "Mr. Stephen, you have worked hard, and you can rest well when you go back."

"Thank you Young Master for your concern!"

After Charlie bid farewell to Stephen Thompson, Stefanie rushed out as soon as Charlie entered the Sun's house.

She ran to Charlie with red eyes, hugged Charlie, and choked pitifully, "Brother Charlie, I will accompany you to Wade Mountain tomorrow!"

Seeing her eyes were red from crying, Charlie couldn't help asking, "What's the matter? Why did you cried like this?"

Stefanie choked and said, "Brother Charlie, you haven't left for a long time today."

"Dad heard that Dragon Hall was looking for trouble for you, so he ran outside for a day and asked for help, but no one was willing to help."

“Dad came back, at that time, his blood pressure rose and he couldn’t stand anymore...”

Chapter 3353

Today, after Orrin heard that Dragon Hall went to the Wade’s family, he went out to beg for help.

He originally wanted to rely on brushing his old face to ask for more help for Charlie.

However, all members of the Eastcliff family are already arrogant about this matter.

The reputation and strength of the Dragon Hall were so powerful that everyone in the big families like Eastcliff concluded that the Wade Family would undoubtedly destroy this time.

Therefore, no one wants to have anything to do with the Wade Family at this time.

This is also the reason why Lord Banks has been so complacent so early.

Because in everyone’s eyes, it was impossible for the Wade Family to escape this time.

The Dragon Hall is like a swarm of steel chariots, and it can easily crush the flesh and blood of the Wade Family under the wheels!

Therefore, when these people heard that Orrin had to go to Wade Mountain to help, they refused repeatedly.

They didn’t even dare to say a few more words to Orrin, and sent him out of the house just as if they were sending a God of plague.

Orrin ran outside for a day, running for nothing, and he was also very angry.

This day's feelings continued to stack up, causing his blood pressure to rise high when he came back, and he almost fainted.

At this moment, he was lying still in the living room and was losing blood pressure, while his wife Angie was guarding by the side.

Charlie listened to Stefanie's words and hurriedly said, "Take me to see Uncle Orrin. He is a person who has taken Rejuvenating Pill. How can he get high blood pressure?"

With that, Charlie took Stefanie and rushed into the villa.

As soon as they entered the door, he saw Orrin lying on the sofa, cursing while infusing fluids, "These snobbish gangsters usually surround me like dogs and wagging their tails and begging for mercy."

"Now I am looking for them to provide some manpower and support a personal field, one by one can't wait to beat me out of the house, what a b*stard!"

Angie couldn't help persuading him, "It's OK, you should calm down first, don't ruin your body because of this problem."

Orrin said depressedly, "I am not mainly angry, I am anxious! I am afraid that Charlie will not be able to fight that d*mn Dragon Hall tomorrow..."

Seeing this scene, Charlie couldn't help smiling, "Uncle Orrin, don't worry, no matter how powerful the Dragon Hall and Wesley is, I will defeat them all."

When the couple heard Charlie's voice, they hurriedly looked over.

Orrin struggled to sit up and blurted out, "Charlie is back!"

Charlie nodded, and quickly stepped forward and said to Orrin and Angie, "Uncle Orrin, Aunt Angie, this little thing of Dragon Hall is not to be feared at all."

"You don't have to worry about me at all."

Orrin asked in surprise, "Charlie, you...do you have a way to deal with that Dragon Hall?"

Charlie smiled and said, "There is nothing to worry with such a small thing."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "I have been waiting for Wesley to come, as long as he dares to come, I will step on it under his feet, and then logically board the seat of the Wade Family Patriarch."

Chapter 3354

Speaking of this, Charlie shrugged and said, "If not because of Wesley, I really don't know where to start."

"The old man is in the prime of life, and I can't pull him from the position of Patriarch. ."

Orrin was overjoyed and blurted out with excitement, "Charlie! What you said is true?!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, "Of course, how could I lie to you in this kind of thing?"

"Didn't you want me to become the head of the Wade family, inherit my father's will, and then carry forward the Wade family?”

“This is a good opportunity. If the Wade Family has no crisis at all, how can they willingly let me sit as the head of the Patriarch?”

“So, the best way is to break and stand up!”

“And this Wesley is just to help me break the Wade Family’s hammer!”

After listening to Charlie’s words, Orrin was stunned for a few seconds, and then subconsciously asked, “Charlie, this Dragon Hall is actually very strong, with tens of thousands of people under it’s command.”

“You can’t beat four hands with two fists, not to mention so many people!”

Charlie smiled and said, “Uncle Orrin, don’t worry.”

“The Dragon Hall has a lot of manpower, but most of them are mercenaries hired by them for money.”

“If something happened to them, this group of people will immediately scattered like birds.”

“And their real core team is only about a hundred people, not to be afraid of.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “Besides, they don’t dare to bring many people into China with a big fanfare.”

“At most, they are just a bunch of backbones sneaking in.”

Orrin said again, "I heard that most of them counts as martial arts masters, can you handle it?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I was in the Middle East some time ago and fought against the Dragon Hall, which indirectly caused them to lose thousands of lives and more than 10,000 were captured."

"Among them is one of the four kings of the Wesley, there is nothing different from a trash in front of me."

"I have arrested him, and has also been taken to Eastcliff. I will take him to Wade Mountain tomorrow morning."

Orrin said dumbfounded, "Charlie! There are rumors that this Dragon Hall suffered a huge failure in the Middle East some time ago."

"Is this matter related to you?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, "It can almost be said that most of their failure was because of me."

Orrin was dumbfounded, and after a long while, he wished he could laugh long to the sky!

Immediately, he laughed loudly and said, "Hahaha! That's great! That's great! That said, the Dragon Hall is not an enemy to worry at all."

"It's a damn fate spanning thousands of miles to give Charlie allies of pillows!!"

Having said that, he easily pulled out the infusion needle from his wrist and shook his hand at Angie, "Wife! Quick! Prepare wine and food! I want to have a few drinks with Charlie!"

"I'm going to be drunk tonight!"

Angie was equally excited and intolerable, but when she thought that her husband had lost the antihypertensive medicine, he pulled out the needle and was ready to drink."

So she smiled helplessly, "You are in infusion, how can you drink?"

Unexpectedly, Orrin blurted out and retorted, "Drink! I must drink! This is much easier than the New Year!"

"It's fair to drink a little wine!"

What Orrin didn't know was that Lord Banks also thought so at this time.

.....

This night, it suddenly drizzled in Eastcliff.

In this silent spring rain, many people have insomnia, and many people are greedy and drunk.

The first to fall drunk was the elderly Lord Banks.

He is so happy tonight.

After the Banks family suffered huge blows one after another and was fragmented, he finally ushered in an exciting moment.

Because he had been depressed for too long before, he was already a little overwhelmed at the moment.

He drank half of the bottle of Moutai that the Housekeeper brought over by himself, and the other half was poured on the ground by a cup, and he gave it to Bruce Wade.

Saying that he wanted to respect Bruce Wade from the Wade Family's family, in fact, it was just to satisfy his inner pleasure.

At the end of the drink, Lord Banks looked back and saw that he was quietly rushing back to Eastcliff with the Housekeeper.

There was no child or grandchild, and no relative, and he was very melancholy.

He drank a few more glasses, cried and laughed and talked for a long time, and finally couldn't beat the drunkenness and drowsiness, and was sent back to the room by the Housekeeper.

And the same time, Wesley was also drunk.

Because tomorrow morning, he will lift the coffin of his parents from his ancestral grave and take it to Wade Mountain, so he plans to stay overnight in front of his parents' grave tonight.

After 20 years of enduring humiliation, now he finally wants to avenge his parents.

He is excited, and drank several liquor in front of his parents' grave.

Originally with his strength, he could completely force alcohol out of the body through internal force, but he did not do so because he really wanted to get drunk.

On the other side, Orrin was also drunk, so drunk that he was almost unconscious.

Charlie helped him back to his bedroom with Angie.

He is so happy tonight.

After worrying for a whole day, fearing for a whole day, and suffocating for a whole day, he suddenly got good news from Charlie.

This mood of driving low and walking high made him excited and intolerable.

Angie took care of Orrin and fell asleep.

Stefanie took Charlie's hand and stayed in the living room for a long time, unwilling to let go.

Charlie persuaded her to go to sleep, but she didn't agree with her life or death, she had to lean on Charlie's shoulder on the sofa.

She said that in this way, she could always feel the existence of Charlie, because she was afraid that after waking up, Charlie had already left home and went to Wade Mountain alone.

Charlie knew that this girl cared about himself, so he let her go.

As a result, the two sat on the sofa, chatting about the past, until Stefanie couldn't help but fell asleep.

Charlie just sat on the sofa and let Stefanie lean against him.

He didn't move or fall asleep all night.

He didn't even think about Wesley in his mind, all he thought about was how he would inherit his father's will in the future and let the Wade Family go to the top of the world.

Although he knows very little about the situation overseas, he always feels that a broad road has begun to take shape, and he just waits for himself to really set off!

Moreover, like Wesley, he also hopes to one day avenge his dead parents!
