

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3291-3292

Chapter 3291

Charlie didn't expect that Angie specially prepared a suit for himself.

When he was wondering, Orrin on the side smiled and said, "Your Aunt Angie was afraid that when you came to Eastcliff, you didn't prepare a suit, so she specially asked London's best tailor-made suit master to make one for you."

Charlie thanked, "Thank you, Aunt Angie!"

Angie smiled and said, "What are you being polite to auntie?"

"I estimated the size of the suit, I don't know if this suit fit you well. Come and try it."

At this time, Stefanie Sun, who was even wearing a nightdress, also came out of the room while yawning and said with a smile, "Brother Charlie, you're very handsome with the suit that mother prepared for you."

"It is said that many prime ministers and presidents in Europe and North America are regular guests of that master! Go and have a try!"

Charlie was happy and he followed the mother and daughter to the independent cloakroom upstairs.

Sun family's walk-in cloakroom, which is larger than the normal bedroom, has at least more than 40 square meters.

Angie took Charlie to the dressing mirror on the whole wall, and then took out a brand-new black suit from the wardrobe next to him.

Stefanie Sun took out an ironed white shirt without folds and a tie from the wardrobe beside her.

Angie handed the suit to Charlie and said with a smile, "Charlie, try to see if it fits."

Charlie said with a little embarrassment, "Aunt Angie, can I try on clothes in a room?"

Stefanie Sun said quickly, "Mom, you go out first, or brother Charlie will be shy. I'll help him change his clothes here."

Charlie said helplessly, "Well, I can do it myself, you should go with Aunt Angie?"

Stefanie Sun curled her lips and said, "I'm your child bride. I don't need to avoid while you change your clothes..."

Charlie blurted out, "Why did you become a child bride..."

Stefanie Sun said seriously, "I have been betrothed to you since I was a child."

"What's the difference between this and the child bride?"

Angie smiled and said, "Okay, don't make fun of Charlie."

"Let's go out first and let Charlie change it for himself and let's come back in after."

Stefanie Sun looked at Charlie, smiled badly, pulled the tie off the shirt, shook it in her hand, and said, "Brother Charlie, I'll put the tie for you later."

With that, she went out of the cloakroom with her mother.

....

Meanwhile, Helena, who is at Shangri-La Hotel, has also got up from bed.

Last night, she didn't rest well all night because she had been worried that she would have an east window accident.

At first, she couldn't fall asleep for a long time and she fell asleep with difficulty. She always had all kinds of nightmares, and she slept intermittently for less than two hours.

She was originally in poor health.

She didn't have enough rest in China these days, and her physical condition was even worse. So last night's suffering was simply worse for her.

As she got up, she felt that her heartbeat had been accelerating uncontrollably, almost out of control.

Chapter 3292

She hurriedly took out a nitroglycerin tablet and put it under her tongue to take it, which made her feel a little better.

However, the state of the whole person is still extremely poor.

At the thought that she would spend almost all day at the Wade family today and tomorrow, Helena couldn't help wondering whether her body could survive.

However, she also knows that even if she can't hold on, she has to.

Whether her mother can always have a place in the future is basically up to herself.

Just then, she suddenly received a call from her mother from northern Europe.

As soon as the phone was connected, her mother said on the other side of the phone, "Helena, the royal family has just informed that your grandmother is now suffering from multiple organ failure and is in a serious coma and may die at any time..."

Helena was shocked, "Why is it getting worse so fast?"

"I don't know." Helena's mother said, "I only heard that the situation has deteriorated sharply and is out of control."

"The doctor said that it is impossible for her to wake up."

"When she will die is only a matter of time. If it is fast, it will not exceed a week."

Helena couldn't help feeling a little sad and frustrated.

Although she is sometimes dissatisfied with her Grandma's tough wrists, she can still understand all the decisions made by the tough old lady.

Of course, it also includes her abolition of her right to the throne.

Although her Grandma has been in power for so many years, she has been serving the royal family wholeheartedly, hoping that the royal family can continue to be strong.

Therefore, every decision she made is not based on her own interests, but on the overall situation of the royal family.

Helena still admires her for this.

Now, her Grandma will die soon, but she is still in China thousands of miles away, which makes her heart inevitably sad.

At this time, Helena's mother added, "If your grandmother dies in these days, I'm afraid your engagement banquet will be postponed."

"According to the royal rules, you must come back to your grandmother's funeral, then attend Olivia's coronation ceremony, and then go to China and Franklin Wade to hold the engagement banquet. "

"I understand." Helena said with understanding, "As a member of the royal family, the funeral of the queen and the coronation of the new queen are naturally the two most important things."

With these words, Helena couldn't help asking, "Mom, can I go back to see Grandma for the last time before she passed away?"

"The engagement banquet will definitely be postponed."

“It doesn’t make sense for me to stay here. If I don’t go back before my grandmother’s death, there will be no chance.”

Helena’s mother sighed and said, “We can’t sit in this matter.”

“You have to ask Olivia if it is possible.”

“Although she hasn’t been officially crowned yet, she has taken over the big and small affairs of the royal family.”

“If you want to come back to see your grandmother for the last time, ask Olivia’s opinion first.”

“If she nodded, naturally it has no problem.”

“Okay!” Helena said quickly, “Then I’ll call Olivia.”

After saying goodbye to her mother, Helena immediately called her cousin, Olivia, the next queen who was about to be crowned.

The phone rang for a long time, and it was not connected.

Just as Helena was about to hang up and call later, the phone was connected.

Then, a woman’s slightly smiling voice sounded on the other end of the phone, “Helena, how have you been in China recently, my sister.”

Helena said quickly, “Olivia, I heard that Grandma is critically ill?”

The opposite side smiled and said, "Yes, sister, multi-organ failure. Heh heh."

"The doctor has made us ready to lose her psychologically at any time."

Helena felt that Olivia's light laughter was a little harsh, but she couldn't care about these things at this time.

She hurriedly asked her, "Olivia, if grandma's situation is so bad, she may have die before the day of my marriage..."

"At that time, I will definitely go back to the funeral, and the engagement will inevitably be postponed, so I want to explain the situation to the Wade family first, postpone the marriage contract temporarily, and go back to see my grandmother for the last time, okay?"

There was a moment of silence on the other end of the phone.

Then, the other party asked coldly, "If I remember correctly, are you going to get engaged on the 7th?"

"Yes." Helena blurted out, "I am worried that grandma will not be able to survive these three days."

"In that case, I won't see her for the last time."

The other party sneered and said, "Helena, Grandma is now in a severe coma and won't wake up anymore."

"Even if you come back, she won't recognize you, I don't think you need to toss!"

“Whether she is dead or alive within three days, your engagement with the Wade family will be held as scheduled, no changes are allowed!” The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3293-3294

Chapter 3293

Helena did not expect that her cousin suddenly became so unfeeling.

She blurted out subconsciously, “If Grandma really passed away before my engagement, how could the engagement ceremony be held as scheduled?”

“If I still hold the engagement banquet as usual while grandma passed away, it will spurn the entire royal family!”

Olivia on the other end of the phone said coldly, “Don’t worry, I will let her survive these three days as much as possible.”

“Even if she really passes away within these three days, I will not release the news.”

“I will wait for you. It will be announced after the engagement.”

Helena couldn’t help but angrily scolded, “How can you do this?!”

“What do you think of grandma?”

“Is it a toll in your control?!”

Olivia sternly said, "Helena! Remember that her life or death is not important at all!"

"Your marriage with the Wade family is the most important!"

"The Wade family has promised to invest 3 billion euros to develop tourism real estate in Europe immediately after you and Franklin Wade get married."

"If you dare to make any delays, don't blame me for being rude to your mother!"

Helena was angry and shouted angrily, "Olivia! I have always regarded you as my own sister, and my mother has treated you as a daughter since I was a child. It's too much to have your current face!!"

Olivia sneered, "Helena, 'Olivia' is not what you should call me! Remember, you have to call me Royal Highness!"

With these words, Olivia threatened again, "Helena! I know you're not in good health, but remember my words!"

"You'd better let yourself live for a few more years to ensure that the cooperation between the royal family and the Wade family can be implemented."

"Don't let this thing be ruined! Otherwise, I will definitely kick your mother out of the royal family and let her fall into the street!"

"How dare you!" Helena was so angry that she gnashed her teeth and roared, "If you dare to touch my mother, I will kill you!"

Olivia sneered, "Helena, you'd better figure out the current situation."

“After Grandma’s death, I will ascend to the throne as the new queen immediately.”

“How would you kill me? I advise you to save your own body with your congenital heart disease!”

Speaking of which, Olivia smiled contemptuously and said, “Helena, don’t say I didn’t give you a chance. As long as you complete the marriage with the Wade family, and then try to live for a few more years and stay honestly, I will guarantee your mother’s life.”

“Otherwise, don’t blame me for disregarding my relatives!”

Helena only felt shudder. Originally, she thought that the royal family could most threaten herself was her mother’s future retirement and livelihood.

But only now did she know that the bottom line was pulled lower in Olivia’s place, and she even began to threaten herself with her mother’s life.

At this moment, she felt that Olivia on the other end of the phone became extremely strange in an instant.

She really can’t figure out why this sister, who has known her for 23 years, has such a snake and scorpion heart.

Chapter 3294

But she also knew that if she insisted on fighting against Olivia, her mother’s life would really be threatened, because Olivia now controls the whole royal family and is about to become the queen.

Her mother is just a widow who lives hard and survives in the royal family.

How can she be Olivia's opponent.

So she immediately said, "Olivia, I can agree to all your requests, but you must also agree to me!"

Olivia sneered and said, "Good! You might as well talk about it."

Helena said word for word, "I can marry the Wade family and help you attract the funds of the Wade family, but you must let my mother come to China, and I will take care of her with me!"

Olivia sneered coldly as if she had heard a big joke, "Helena, you are simply whimsical."

"Don't you understand why you should go to China alone and participate in the ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade family?"

"Just to separate you from your mother, so although the royal family will send a lot of representatives to attend your wedding with Franklin Wade, it will definitely not let your mother pass!"

Speaking of which, Olivia smiled and said, "From now on, you are not allowed to go back to northern Europe half a step, nor your mother allowed to leave northern Europe half a step, until one of you dies!"

"If you dare to come back, neither of you will be better!"

Helena's whole body is almost broken down!

She now understands that the royal family let her come to China in advance to participate in the ancestor ceremony of the Wade family, which was actually the idea!

“So Olivia has been planning this for a long time!”

“To separate me from my mother, and then use my mother as a blackmail to force me, Olivia, you are such a devil!”

Being angry, she immediately blurted out and roared, “Olivia, you can’t do this! If you don’t send my mother to China, I will never marry Franklin Wade!”

Olivia said disdainfully, “Whatever you say. Anyway, your mother is now under surveillance by my people.”

“She has no chance to leave the palace at all. If you don’t marry Franklin Wade as agreed, your mother will disappear completely from the world.”

“No one knows where she is going, or even her death or life!”

Speaking of which, Olivia laughed and said, “So, do you think I won’t kill her?”

Helena’s brain was dizzy in an instant. She only felt that her heartbeat had far exceeded the load of the heart itself.

She felt that her physical condition at this time was worse than ever before.

She could only tremble and say, “Olivia, if I die of a heart attack in China, can you let my mother go?”

Olivia sneered, “Don’t act for me here. I asked your health doctor. He said that you should live for three or five years.”

“The Wade family is also the top family in China.”

“They should have a way to help you treat and live longer.”

With these words, Olivia threatened, “Helena, my good sister, just now, your mother has been taken away from house arrest by my bodyguard.”

“From now on, don’t be delusional to contact her.”

“You can live well in China and be your rich lady.”

“As long as you cooperate honestly, your mother will definitely live longer!”

“I still have a lot to deal with before I ascend the throne. Let’s go here my sister!”

Olivia said this and hung up the phone directly before Helena could open her mouth.

By this time, Helena’s whole body had completely collapsed.

She immediately called her mother, but it showed that her mobile phone had been turned off.

She immediately called the landline of the room, but the landline was not answered for a long time.

At this moment, Helena was extremely desperate.

She only felt that her heart was beating faster and faster, and it was getting more and more chaotic.

The huge pressure went straight to the top of her head and chest cavity, making her brain more and more dizzy, and it became more and more difficult to breathe.

Immediately, she felt black before her eyes, and she collapsed to the ground in an instant, completely losing consciousness.

At this moment, Franklin Wade, wearing a black suit, stepped to the door of Helena's room.

He pressed the doorbell and waited patiently for a while, but found that there was no movement inside, so he simply patted the door and said, "My dear, this is Franklin Wade."

"I'm here to pick you up. Are you ready?"The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3295-3300

Chapter 3295

There was still no response in the room at this time.

Franklin Wade was a little suspicious, and couldn't help but increase the intensity of his hands, slap the door hard, and shouted, "Helena, are you there?"

There is still no movement in the room.

At this time, the door of the next room opened, and two young women came out, one of whom was a Nordic face and a Chinese face.

Franklin Wade recognized them, the two women, who were the attendants brought by Olivia from northern Europe.

So he asked the Chinese girl, "Where are your princess?"

The Chinese girl opened her mouth and said, "It's in the room."

"How is it possible!" Franklin Wade frowned and said, "I knocked on the door for a long time, and no one took care of it. Did she go out?"

"Probably not." The girl said, "If the princess wants to go out, she will usually tell us."

Immediately, she came over and knocked on Helena's door, shouting loudly, "Your Royal Highness, Your Royal Highness, are you there?"

Nothing happens in the room.

The Chinese girl's expression suddenly changed, and immediately took out the room card in her pocket and brushed it at the door. The door opened in response.

Immediately, the two girls rushed in one after another.

Franklin Wade followed up quickly, but before he entered the room, he heard the panic shouting inside, "Your Highness, wake up, Your Highness!"

When Franklin Wade rushed in, he saw Helena lying on the carpet in the living room at a glance, completely unconscious.

The Chinese girl immediately skillfully began to press Helena's heart, and urged Franklin Wade, "Call an ambulance!"

"Oh, oh..." Franklin Wade recovered.

He hadn't figured out what was going on, but he had to quickly take out his mobile phone and dialed the emergency phone first.

As soon as the phone was made, the operator immediately asked, "Hello, emergency center, what can I help you?"

Franklin Wade said in a panic, "Uh...that... someone on my side fainted... Er...I need an ambulance!"

The operator hurriedly asked, "Okay, please tell me the address?"

Franklin Wade blurted out, "The address is Shangri-La Hotel... Room number is... Room number... Oh, I can't remember it all of a sudden..."

The Chinese girl shouted, "8th floor! 8108!"

Franklin Wade said quickly, "Oh, 8th floor, 8108!"

At the end of the phone, "Okay, Roger, 8108, Shangri-La Hotel."

"What other conditions caused the patient to faint?"

"What's the reason?" Franklin Wade said confusedly, "This... I don't know... She just fainted and unconscious...”

The Chinese girl shouted, “Congenital heart disease! Severe tetradrupedrome of fallot!”

“Please send first responders right away, please contact the hospital with cardiology emergency to prepare for acceptance!”

Franklin Wade listened to it and secretly said, “Helena has a congenital heart attack? Or heavy? Is it true that Charlie was right?!”

Chapter 3296

Just when Franklin Wade was in trouble, the operator on the other end of the phone had heard the voice of the Chinese girl, so he hurriedly said, “Okay, I’ll arrange it for you!”

“Please make sure to keep the phone open!”

At this time, the Chinese girl said to the Nordic girl in front of her, “Emily, Her Royal Highness is in a very serious situation.”

“Go get the defibrillator!”

“Okay!” The girl immediately ran back to the room, and more than ten seconds later, she ran in with a first aid kit.

As soon as she arrived at Helena, she immediately took out a portable defibrillator from the first aid kit and began to prepare for the defibrillator to start up.

The Chinese girl looked at Franklin Wade and shouted, “Go out quickly! We are going to denilize the tremble of Our Royal Highness!”

Franklin Wade subconsciously said, “It’s okay. I’ll just watch here, I won’t delay you...”

The Chinese girl blurted out and shouted, “To remove tremors, we need to take off her clothes! Don’t you understand the truth of indecent? Get out quickly!”

Franklin Wade had to go out of the room in frustration.

At this time, in the room, one of the two girls continued to press Helena’s chest, and the other prepared the defibrillator, tore Helena’s pajamas, and said, “The defibrillator is ready!”

“Okay!” The Chinese girl blurted out, “I count one, two, three seconds later, my hands are separated, and you immediately defibrillate!”

“Okay!”

The Chinese girl continued to press Helena and shouted, “One, two, three! Remove tremor!”

With that, her hands were flashing back, and another girl skillfully took advantage of this gap to stick the defibrillator to Helena’s heart, and with a blunt of a voice, she performed the first defibrillator.

As soon as the defibrillation was over, the Chinese girl immediately continued to press, and observed Helena’s condition.

She said, “The princess hasn’t woken up yet.”

“I’ll do cardiopulmonary resuscitation several times. You continue to prepare for defibrillation!”

“Okay!”

Two minutes later, the Chinese girl saw that Helena had not woke up yet.

She couldn’t help panicking and said, “The energy reaches 360 joules, ready to defibrillate!”

The other girl was shocked when she heard this. She was just want to ask something, but she went back.

She also knew that the situation was urgent now and she had to fight.

So she immediately adjusted the parameters of the defibrillator and carried out a second defibrillator.

Unfortunately, Helena still didn’t respond at all this time.

Both girls were a little panicked at this time.

The Chinese girl gritted her teeth and said, “Prepare adrenaline...”

In addition, the Nordic girl asked in a panic, “Now use epinephrine?”

“The doctor told the princess to use epinephrine carefully in her heart, and she had to use it, because after using it, the princess may not last long...”

The Chinese girl blurted out, “If we don’t use it, we can’t save the princess! Anyway, we can’t let the princess leave like this.”

“We have to let the princess leave her last words, otherwise we can’t go back to explain to Princess Olivia!”

With these words, the Chinese girl said again, “The princess’s current situation, if it is delayed for another minute, it is impossible to wake her up again!”

“All right!” The Nordic girl gritted her teeth and took out a closed-packaged syringe from the first aid kit, which was already filled with a small amount of transparent liquid drugs.

The Chinese girl took the syringe from her hand and tore the package while telling her, “Take out your mobile phone and prepare the video!”

“Okay!” The Nordic girl agreed, then took out her mobile phone and turned on the video.

Then the Chinese girl pointed the needle at Helena’s heart and then stabbed it without hesitation.

At this time, the most effective way for epinephrine is to inject it directly into the heart.

The doctor has long said that Helena’s body cannot use epinephrine as last resort, because once epinephrine is used, the stimulation of the heart will cause her other cardiovascular and cerebrovascular disease to attack instantly.

But now there is no other way, only adrenaline can make Helena shine back, even if it only takes a few minutes, it is better than just dying directly.

Really!

After a shot of adrenaline hit Helena's heart, Helena's heart instantly resumed beating.

However, the heart at this time has become a boiler on the verge of explosion, it is only the end of the battle.

Immediately afterwards, Helena, who was in coma, suddenly opened her eyes!

Chapter 3297

Although it was only a few minutes in a coma, to Helena, it seemed a century had been spent in the dark!

So, when she woke up, she seemed to have exhausted all the oxygen after diving on the bottom of the sea, and finally came up at the last minute, breathing heavily.

Immediately afterwards, her vision recovered, and other senses gradually recovered.

Seeing the two people in front of her, she immediately realized that it was her two attendants who saved her.

They both received very good first aid training.

This time, they followed her to ensure her safety.

After that, she felt the sharp pain in her heart again, and when she looked down, she saw the Chinese girl was still holding a syringe of adrenaline in her hand.

She asked nervously, "You...you injected me with epinephrine?"

The Chinese girl said with shameful expression, "I'm sorry, Princess Helena, your situation just now is so critical that I can only choose to inject epinephrine to wake you up."

With these words, she pointed to the mobile phone held by another girl and said, "This mobile phone is recording. If you have any last words, please hurry up and say it to the camera..."

Helena smiled bitterly and said, "If I guess correctly, you Olivia sent me to spy on me, right?"

The Chinese girl didn't say anything, because she knew that she was recording now.

Once Helena died, the video would be given to Princess Olivia intact, so she must not make any mistakes.

Helena saw that she didn't speak, shook her head gently, and said weakly, "In fact, I don't blame you. If you hadn't injected me with epinephrine, I might have died and I didn't have the opportunity to leave a last word."

"In the end, I still want to thank you."

The Chinese girl bowed her head in shame and dared not look at Helena.

At this time, Helena also turned to the camera and said word for word, "Olivia, I don't know what made you like this, but I beg you to let my mother live for the sake of me dying soon, otherwise, I will climb out of hell and kill you even if I turn into a fierce ghost!"

As soon as the voice fell, she felt the beating speed of her heart suddenly accelerated.

The side effects of epinephrine have begun to appear.

She covered her heart to death and could feel the sharp beating of the heart. She not only shook the heart and hurt, but also shook her palm numbly.

Just then, the first responders in the ambulance had arrived.

Franklin Wade quickly smashed the door and shouted, "The ambulance personnel are coming, open the door quickly!"

The Chinese girl hurriedly found a bathrobe and wrapped Helena.

At the same time, another Nordic girl also stopped video recording.

Helena said weakly at this time, "Please do me a favor again."

"Don't let these people in. After injecting epinephrine into my body, it will definitely produce acute heart failure."

"If I can't be saved, please let me stay here."

"At this time, I want to spend it quietly alone."

The Chinese girl hurriedly said, "Your Highness, you have come to the hospital to cooperate with the treatment.

"Maybe the doctor can still extend your life..."

Chapter 3298

Helena smiled bitterly, "Extension is just a day or more than ten hours."

"It doesn't make sense. In order to live for more than ten hours, I have to be plugged in all kinds of pipes and surrounded by various instruments."

"I really can't accept it. It's better to die decently."

The two girls looked at each other, and the Chinese girl blurted out, "Your Highness, even if there is a glimmer of hope, please don't give up!"

With that, she immediately stood up and opened the door.

Ambulance personnel rushed in immediately with stretchers.

It was obviously a little surprising to see that there was a defibrillator and injected epinephrine at the scene.

The Chinese girl hurriedly said to one of the first responders, "We have done cardiopulmonary resuscitation and defibrillation, injected a mg of epinephrine into the ventrion."

"Please send the patient to the most authoritative cardiovascular hospital as soon as possible!"

The first responder didn't expect that there were still two experts here, but they didn't care too much at this time.

They hurriedly greeted several people to lift Helena on the stretcher.

Franklin Wade was a little in a hurry, but he felt that he could not help. He didn't know what to do for a while, so he could only call Lord Wade quickly.

As soon as the phone was connected, he quickly reported the matter here to Lord Wade.

After hearing this, Lord Wade immediately felt a tickle, afraid that Helena would die in China at this time.

He hurriedly said to Franklin Wade, "Tell the first responders and take it directly to the Affiliated Hospital of Wade's Group, where there are the best cardiovascular departments in the country!"

"We will rush there immediately!"

Only then did Franklin Wade remember that their hospital was very authoritative in this respect, and quickly agreed to the first responder, "Send her to the Affiliated Hospital of Wade's Group!"

The affiliated hospital of the Wade Group, like the Shangri-La Hotel, is the whole asset business of the Wade family.

Moreover, for convenience, the Wade family built the Affiliated Hospital and Shangri-La Hotel near their own estates.

From the Shangri-La Hotel, whether it is going to the Wade family's hospital or the Wade family's manor, it is very close.

Ambulances rushed all the way and arrived at the emergency center of Wade family Hospital in a few minutes.

At the same time, Lord Wade immediately postponed the visit time of his relatives from 9:00 to 9:30.

Subsequently, he took the immediate relatives of the Wade family to the hospital quickly.

The Nordic royal princess had a heart attack in the Wade family.

Once she died, it would have a great impact on the reputation of the Wade family.

Therefore, Lord Wade could only delay everything for a while and rush to it as soon as possible.

Wade's family arrived at the hospital at almost the same time as Franklin Wade.

Lord Wade did not have time to inquire about the situation, so he directly asked all the experts in the cardiovascular department to gather in the rescue room for Helena for a comprehensive consultation.

At this time, Helena's condition has become worse and worse.

More than ten minutes later, several experts reached a unified conclusion.

So the director of the department came out and said to Mr. Wade, "Master, this princess Helena suffered from severe tetralogy of fallot."

After using epinephrine, she had irreversible heart failure, which is to the point where she can be declared critically ill. Please consecrate."

Franklin Wade, who was next to him, was shocked and blurted out, "Why is...we aren't married yet. She can't do it?"

The director of the department nodded and said seriously, "Young master, in the case of Princess Helena, it is very rare for her to live so long."

"Most of the patients with such serious diseases will not live to adulthood."

Franklin Wade swallowed his saliva and asked the expert, "How long can she live?"

After a moment, the director of the department said seriously, "In my experience, it is estimated that one to 12 hours are the most likely, and the best result is 24 hours."

"F*ck it!" Franklin Wade burst into a swear word and angrily said, "Isn't this f*cking a calf? A good living person like her is going to die like this?!"

The director of the department said helplessly, "There is really no good way to solve this disease for the time being, even a heart transplant, it can't be solved."

Franklin Wade felt unwilling and unlucky for a while.

He hurriedly looked at Lord Wade and blurted out and asked, "Grandpa, what should we do now!"

Lord Wade was also confused when he heard this, and blurted out, "Director Corey, you immediately organize an expert team, prepare to rescue medicine and equipment, and send Helena to the airport with Franklin!"

After speaking, Lord Wade said again, "I will make the Concorde plane ready to take off now and wait at the airport."

“When you arrive, you will take off directly to Northern Europe.”

“You must send Helena to Northern Europe before her death. You must not let her die in China!”

Speaking of this, Lord Wade said with a worried expression, “If she really died in China, we won’t be able to get rid of this scapegoat!”

Chapter 3299

When Franklin Wade heard this, he hurriedly asked, “Grandpa, do you want me to take her back personally?”

“I still have to attend the ancestor worship ceremony!”

Lord Wade blurted out, “If something like this has happened, if our Wade family asks the doctor to send Helena back, we will definitely fall into trouble.”

“You are the eldest grandson of Wade’s family and her fiancé, so you can completely represent the Wade family!”

“Furthermore, by taking a Concorde airliner, you can arrive in Northern Europe in four hours.”

“You will return immediately after you hand her over to the Northern European royal family.”

“You will be back at the very early morning of tomorrow at the latest.”

“It will only delay your participation in the ancestors worship ceremony.”

Speaking of this, Lord Wade warned again, “Helena is your fiancée, if you don’t send her back, the Nordic royal family will definitely pick you up, and spreading it out will have a great impact on your reputation!”

“You are young, you can’t just the label of a transnational patriarch!”

Thomas Wade on the side also said immediately, “Yes, Franklin! You have to come forward with this matter!”

“Otherwise, you will be scolded to death by the world in the future!”

Franklin Wade couldn’t help cursing in a low voice, “What a f*cking bad luck!”

After speaking, he realized that he had said something wrong and hurriedly said, “Sorry grandpa, sorry dad, I was in a hurry just now, please don’t mind.”

Lord Wade waved his hand and said, “It’s okay, you take Helena to the airport, remember to coax her a bit on the way, don’t make her emotional anymore, be sure to let her return to Northern Europe alive, understand?”

“Understand...” Franklin Wade nodded quickly.

At this time, Director Corey hurriedly returned to the rescue room.

Lord Wade looked at Franklin Wade and blurted out, “Franklin, you go in with me, soothe Helena’s emotions!”

Franklin Wade nodded, and went into the rescue room with Lord Wade.

As soon as he entered the rescue room, Director Corey blurted out to several doctors, "You all seize the time to prepare first aid medicines, first aid equipment, oxygen generators and oxygen cylinders."

"We will leave for the airport in 15 minutes and then fly non-stop to Northern Europe!"

As soon as everyone heard this, they immediately dispersed to prepare.

Helena lay weakly on the hospital bed, looking at Lord Wade and Franklin Wade and asked with a wry smile, "Are you going to send me back?"

Franklin Wade nodded and bit the bullet and said, "Helena, we have an old saying in China..."

"Your situation is so bad, we have to send you back to Northern Europe before your situation gets worse."

Helena gave a sorrowful smile and said, "Ok...thank you for your kindness....but I'm afraid I won't be able to make it before we land in Northern Europe by the plane..."

Franklin Wade's face immediately turned green when he heard this.

The most frustrating thing about this kind of thing is that as long as Helena can't support Northern Europe, even if she is short of breath for a second before the plane landed, this matter is also the Wade family's responsibility.

Lord Wade also knows this truth well.

If Helena is only a member of the Nordic family, it would be better to say, after all, it is a private matter between the two families, but Helena is the princess of the Nordic royal family.

Even if the royal family has no political symbol of Nordic after all, it is impossible to completely avoid political factors.

Chapter 3300

Once it rises to the political level, this matter cannot be easily resolved in private!

Lord Wade was in trouble all of a sudden.

However, seeing Helena's current situation, I am afraid she won't be able to return to Northern Europe.

Just when he didn't know what to do, Helena said weakly, "Or...Or you can take a video of me with your phone....I will... I will explain in the video, my death it's because of my congenital disease since I was young, and it has nothing to do with your Wade family..... So you don't have to.... Don't be so hurried ...to send me to the airport..."

Franklin Wade, who is most afraid of losing the name of a bad-hearted man in the future, would be happy, but said, "Oh, Helena, we didn't mean that."

"We simply want you to return to your beloved motherland and not let you leave any regrets."

Although Franklin Wade said so, his hand was already in his pocket, and he took out the phone, turned on the video recording, and said to Helena, "But your idea is really good, in order to prevent the public from being concerned about this matter in the future."

"If there is a misunderstanding, it is better for you to explain the situation to everyone."

Helena was surprised that Franklin Wade would do such a thing, so she faced the camera and said with difficulty, "Hello, everyone.... I am Helena.... I have been suffering from congenital tetralogy of Fallot since I was a child."

"Now that the symptoms are sudden, it may be difficult to get through this barrier...."

"Those who want to see this video, don't blame anyone for my death."

Hearing this, Franklin Wade and Mr. Wade breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

At this time, Helena's eyes blushed and said seriously, "Besides, I want to implore everyone to save my mother."

"She is now under house arrest by Princess Olivia of the Nordic royal family!"

Immediately afterwards, Helena was very emotional and angrily rebuked, "In order to force me to marry the Wade family and force me to help Nordic royal family attract Wade family's funds, she deliberately put my mother under house arrest and used her life, forcing me to submit!"

"I hope Olivia can restore my mother's personal freedom under pressure after seeing this video."

"At the same time, I also implore the Nordic government to ensure my mother's safety..."

Speaking of this, Helena was even more emotional and sternly said, "I also hope that after my death, the Nordic government can thoroughly investigate the crimes of Olivia!"

"She, a snake-hearted villain, must not get away with it, let alone become the next queen! She should be sent to prison and become a criminal despised by people all over the world!"

Seeing Helena's emotions, Franklin Wade couldn't help trembling violently.

He hurriedly stepped forward to calm down and said, "Helena, don't get excited, your body is the most important thing now!"

Helena looked at Franklin Wade, smiled sadly, and said, "It's okay, so be it! After I die, please publish the entire video, so that it will help me a lot."

Franklin Wade coughed awkwardly, and said, "Cough, cough, it should be, it's just a matter of effort, by the way, how do you feel?"

Helena smiled hardly, "I feel like a stalled airplane, which is falling fast."

"When it falls to the ground, everything is free..."

Lord Wade on the side hurriedly said, "Helena, you still try to persist as much as possible."

"If you can persist until we can send you back in Northern Europe, it would be the best."

"When you arrive in Northern Europe, you may have the opportunity to meet your mother again."

Helena shook her head slightly, and said weakly, "I may not be able to persist, but you don't have to worry."

"With the video I just recorded, even if I die now, you don't have to take any responsibility."

When Lord Wade heard this, his nervous mood instantly became a lot easier.

At this time, the monitor next to Helena issued a harsh warning sound, and Helena's blood pressure, heart rate, and blood oxygen indicators were all dropping sharply.

As soon as Director Corey saw this situation, he hurriedly shouted to the doctors who were packing up, "The patient is in a critical condition, get ready for first aid!"

Helena waved her hand hard, and whispered, "Don't bother, please leave me this last bit of decent..."

Director Corey looked at Lord Wade and asked, "Master, should we do?"

Lord Wade sighed and said, "Follow Princess Helena's wish!"

After speaking, he didn't want to stay in this kind of depressed rescue room, so he turned and walked out.

Old people like him are most afraid of this kind of occasion.

Even if the person lying there receiving rescue is not himself, it will always make them think of himself unconsciously.

Seeing that Lord Wade had gone out, Franklin Wade hesitated for a moment, and blurted out to Director Corey, "Director Corey! I think we must try to rescue her!"

"Otherwise, in case someone from the Nordic royal family does an autopsy and finds that we have an ulterior motive for rescue at the last moment, Maybe they will use this handle to attack us, saying that our treatment is not effective..."

Speaking of this, Franklin Wade said with a grimace, "In that case, aren't we going to have a f*cking pot on our back?!"The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3301-3302

Chapter 3301

Hearing that Franklin Wade wanted to pretend to rescue Helena, Director Corey asked hurriedly, "Young Master, should I ask the Master for instructions?"

"No need!" Franklin Wade blurted out, "You hurry to take all the rescue measures in place, if Grandpa blames you, I will bear it!"

As soon as Director Corey heard this, he recalled what Franklin Wade said just now that he might fall into trouble if he didn't rescue her.

After weighing it, he immediately said, "Okay young master, let's rescue her immediately!"

Helena's sad eyes stared at Franklin Wade, trying to condemn, but she swallowed it back.

She knew that Franklin Wade only wanted to separate everything from her impending death and didn't want to take the slightest responsibility.

Although she has a bit of contempt for Franklin Wade, she can understand it to a certain extent, after all, she deliberately concealed this matter first.

Thinking of this, she sighed sadly in her heart, "No one should be blame but myself, if it weren't for Franklin Wade's cousin Charlie to break all this, I might still continue to deceive Franklin Wade and the other Wade family members, so I have this fate today, and I deserve it....."

So, she gave up the last struggle and thought, "If these people want to pretend to rescue me, then let them be..."

Seeing Helena's miserable and desperate eyes, Franklin Wade felt a little guilty, so he hurriedly said to Director Corey, "Well, you rescue the patient, I will not be a layman here to make trouble, I will go to the door and wait."

Director Corey nodded, and said hurriedly, "Then, Young Master, please move outside first and wait for a while."

"Okay!" Franklin Wade replied, turned his head and walked out.

Franklin Wade is gone, and other doctors have rushed over, ready to carry out the final rescue of Helena.

Helena didn't say a word, her eyes fixed on the ceiling, she was already expecting death soon.

She knows that terminally ill patients who are rescued will generally suffer a lot of pain and torture, so she can only pray that this process will be as fast as possible and give herself a simple one.

At this moment, in Helena's mind, for some reason, she suddenly remembered the scene when she met Charlie that day.

She remembered the way he looked at her own eyes, and remembered what he said while holding her hand.

At this moment, there was a sudden excitement in her mind!

She remembered the order Charlie had given herself at that time, which sounded absurd, and even had no scientific basis.

“He said that if my heart hurts and I can’t stand it anymore, I should bite my right middle finger hard...”

“Will this method really work?”

Chapter 3302

Seeing that the doctor had prepared the defibrillator, adrenaline, and various equipment for emergency intubation, Helena knew that even if Charlie’s words were ridiculous, there would only be a small chance.

The possibility of this is also her last life-saving straw at this time!

So she raised her right hand with difficulty and put the middle finger of her right hand into her mouth!

Holding the thought of doing another dying struggle for the last time, Helena bit her right middle finger forcefully!

For a moment, the severe pain made her brows suddenly frowned.

A doctor saw it and blurted out, “Director Corey, the patient is biting his finger!”

Director Corey, who was preparing to give her first aid, saw Helena biting her finger, and hurriedly said to other doctors, “The patient is likely to have hallucinations before her death.”

“Leave her alone, hurry up and rescue!”

As he was talking, Helena at this moment only felt that suddenly in her right middle finger, there was a burst of extremely warm energy that quickly broke through the shackles and flowed to her heart at an extremely fast speed!

This kind of energy transfer speed is incredible, just like the hottest weather, when almost dehydrated, suddenly drink a bottle of iced cola, as long as one sip, the feeling of survival from desperation will instantly penetrate the soul!

Immediately afterwards, she felt that she had exhausted her heart that was about to stop beating.

At this moment, she quickly became full of vitality, like an electric car that had no electricity and was about to stop working, suddenly replaced with a fully charged battery!

Resurrected in an instant full of blood!

This feeling makes Helena a new life!

The state of the whole person has also undergone earth-shaking changes!

A female doctor was holding adrenaline at this time and was about to inject another injection into Helena's heart.

However, when she was about to pierce the needle, the syringe in her hand was suddenly snatched by Helena!

The female doctor was startled, she didn't expect that a patient who was dying would have such a fast speed and strength.

Suspiciously, she glanced at the monitor next to her, and blurted out in shock, "Director! The patient's blood pressure, heart rate, and blood pressure indicators have all recovered!"

When everyone heard this, almost all of them subconsciously looked at the monitor.

On the monitor, Helena's blood pressure had already recovered from 45/30 to 120/70 at an extremely fast speed!

The heart rate has changed from less than 20 beats per minute to 72 beats per minute!

The blood oxygen index has soared to 95% from less than 60% before!

Director Corey was completely stunned.

He looked at the monitor and murmured, "This...this stupid machine is playing with us here, right? Is it broken? Check the machine and the patient."

"There is nothing wrong with the connection part! It's so f*cking weird!"

The doctor stepped forward to check, shook his head and said, "There is no problem, every part is connected normally!"

Director Corey was full of disbelief. He stepped forward and patted the machine vigorously, and blurted out, "I suspect this thing is broken, or one of you will go to the rescue room next door and push another one over!"

But at this moment, Helena sat up suddenly!

All the doctors were stunned on the spot.

They are all experts in the field of cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases.

Everyone has at least ten or twenty years of experience in the industry, but they have never encountered such a thing.

This completely subverts the medical knowledge and medical experience they have gained through so many years of study and accumulation.

It's like an atheist who believes that there are no ghosts in this world all his life.

Suddenly, at a certain period of time, he discovers that the ghosts of his dead relatives appear in front of him, and he even talks with him.

This strong sense of reality and unreality intersect each other, making their worldviews become magical and realistic.

Helena was also as shocked as Director Corey and other doctors at this time.

However, unlike other doctors, she knew exactly what was going on.

"It's Charlie!"

"Charlie saved me!"

"There is nothing wrong with what he said. Biting the middle finger of my right hand in a critical moment saved my life!"

“But I didn’t even take his instructions seriously... I even thought he was just joking with me...”

“If I had thought of him earlier, I wouldn’t have to suffer so many sins... ..”

“But, even though I have suffered a lot of crimes just now, it also allowed me to see the true colors of many people, including the maid beside me and everyone in the Wade family...”

“And just now, the mysterious energy that suddenly gushed out of my right hand must have been left there by Charlie!”

“Who is he, what kind of magical abilities does he have, and he is able to do this?!”

Thinking of this, Helena had only one thought in her mind, “I must go to Charlie!”

“In any case, I have to see Charlie, because only he can help me, and only he can save my life, save me and my mother from being manipulated by the royal family and controlled by Olivia!”

Thinking of this, Helena tore off the oxygen mask, the oximeter on her fingers, and the blood pressure meter on her wrist, and blurted out, “Thank you, but I don’t need your rescue now!”

“This...this...” Director Corey was stunned.

A patient who was dying suddenly sat up from the bed and said that she didn’t need to be rescued...

This is simply outrageous!

So he subconsciously said, “Princess Helena, your current situation is very dangerous, and you may die at any time.”

“We have to conduct a comprehensive check on you, otherwise your life may be in danger at any time!”

However, Helena didn't give him a chance to recover, she jumped off the hospital bed, and she hurried to go outside!
The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3303-3304

Chapter 3303

Outside the rescue room at this time, the immediate family members of the Wade family and the two maids of Helena was still waiting anxiously.

Everyone had already decided that Helena was bound to die, so everyone was waiting for a clear message.

Lord Wade even instructed Franklin Wade to immediately send the video to the butler of the Nordic royal family as long as it was confirmed that Helena was dead, and then to clear the relationship.

However, Franklin Wade felt more or less regretful in his heart.

After all, Helena, a worldly stunner full of exotic customs, is simply the object of all men's dreams.

However, he has never been able to find a chance to kiss her, which is completely a regretful thing.

Cynthia Wade thought of something and asked Lord Wade quietly, “Dad, do you want Charlie to come over?”

“You said that Orrin was cured by him, and Helena’s body has also an abnormality that he found at a glance.”

“Maybe he could save her, or even have it way to cure her!”

Lord Wade waved his hand, “No!”

Cynthia Wade asked puzzledly, “Why, Dad, if Charlie had a way, wouldn’t everyone be happy?”

Lord Wade shook his head firmly, lowered his voice, and said seriously, “Absolutely not! No matter what method Charlie has, his method to cure people must be precious!”

“Definitely not worth wasting on Helena!”

Speaking of this, Lord Wade said, “This woman has been hiding her illness from our Wade family, which is a bad intentions in itself.”

“Why should our Wade family save her in such a precious way?”

“Retribution for bad? I, Lord Wade, are not so great!”

Cynthia Wade immediately understood Lord Wade’s meaning and quickly said, “But Dad, you still have considered it!”

In fact, Lord Wade only said half of his thoughts.

The other half of the thought he didn’t say was that Charlie really has a method to cure people’s illness and rejuvenating.

How can he give up this opportunity to a Helena?

Just as the Wade family was waiting for Helena's dust to settle, the door of the rescue room suddenly opened.

Franklin Wade was bowing his head to fiddle with his mobile phone.

When he heard the opening of the door, he thought it was the doctor who came out, so he didn't raise his head.

He hurriedly asked, "Is she already dead?"

As soon as the words fell, he just looked up and saw the person coming out of the door.

What made him, and all the Wade family, including the two maids surprised was that the person who unexpectedly came out from the rescue room, who had been sentenced to death by the doctor and could last for at most an hour or two.

It turned out to be Helena.

Everyone was struck by lightning, and half of them didn't react.

Chapter 3304

Lord Wade looked at Helena with a terrible face and blurted out and asked, "Helena?! You...how do you..."

Helena looked at the Wade family in front of her and was also disappointed, because she had completely seen the face of the Wade family just now.

However, she also knew very well that she was the first to blame the Wade family for being overly realistic.

And now she can't turn against the Wade family, because she knows that only Charlie can save herself now.

It can even be said that Charlie is the only one who can save his mother now.

So, she looked at Lord Wade, bowed respectfully, and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for your concern. I'm all right."

Lord Wade is completely stupid.

She was dying just now, and now she suddenly runs out and bows to himself and says that she's okay.

Isn't this too magical?

While wondering, he suddenly saw a row of blood marks on Helena's middle finger in her right hand, which made him instantly realize!

"I actually forgot what Franklin said when he came to complain to me that day."

"Charlie told Helena that she must bit her right middle finger in case of an emergency, which could save her life."

“In this way, Charlie was not joking when he said it!”

“It’s just... It’s just that this is amazing!”

“Why does Helena only need to bite her middle finger hard to treat her heart disease that almost killed her?”

“If this is some kind of physical therapy, I absolutely don’t believe it!”

“Her heart attack was sudden and serious, not to mention biting the middle finger, even if the whole middle finger is chopped off, it is impossible to have any therapeutic effect on heart disease!”

“The only possibility is that Charlie must have left a certain medicine or some energy in the fingertips of her right hand!”

“My God... Charlie, at a young age....”

“..... how on earth did he master such a trance?”

At this time, Helena found that Lord Wade actually stared at her right hand and pointed out the god.

She hurriedly clenched her right hand and covered the wound on her middle finger.

At this time, Franklin Wade also ran over and asked with surprise and surprise, “Helena, are you really all right?”

“I’m really fine.” Helena smiled and said, “Maybe the doctor here was so skillful that he saved me.”

Franklin Wade still looked unbelievable and asked, “So are you recovering now?”

Helena said, “I’m not sure whether I’m cured, but I feel much better now, and there should be no danger.”

At this time, Director Corey also ran out with several doctors.

Franklin Wade quickly pulled him over and asked him, “Director Corey, Helena is really all right?”

Director Corey nodded repeatedly and said, “Her Royal Highness’s physical indicators have returned to normal, and it seems that her physical strength and spirit are also very good.”

“She should be out of danger, but as for the actual situation, further in-depth inspection may be needed.”

Lord Wade said quickly at this time, “Then arrange the most comprehensive inspection for Helena!”

Helena said at this time, “Mr. Wade, it’s not necessary.”

“Since I’m out of danger, it’s better to put the important thing of the Wade family’s ancestor worship ceremony first, otherwise in case I delay the business, I would really feel sorry.”

With that, Helena added, “I know you must be very dissatisfied with my concealment of my illness, and I also know that all this matter is my fault, but now the Wade family’s ancestor worship ceremony must not be lost.”

“I am willing to continue to accompany Franklin Wade as his fiancée to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony!”

“As for whether to continue to fulfill the marriage contract, after the ancestor worship ceremony, everything will be decided by you.”

When Lord Wade heard this, he couldn't help sighing that Helena was indeed not an ordinary girl.

She can find out her pain point at once and give a set of statements that she can't refuse at all.

Now Helena's life is not in danger.

If she hadn't met her relatives with the members of the Wade family today, those relatives would have talked about it and imagined.

After all, many of the relatives want to take advantage of this ancestor worship ceremony to see the beauty of the Nordic royal princess.

If she does not participate in the official ancestor worship ceremony tomorrow, not only the relatives will say anything, but also the outside world will certainly speculate about this matter.

Therefore, instead of this, it is better to let Helena follow the Wade family and successfully end the most important ceremony of ancestor worship.

As for whether to continue to fulfill the marriage contract, she can wait for him to talk about it.

By then, the Wade family can at least use the reason that Helena conceal her illness as an excuse to openly cancel the marriage with the Nordic royal family.

So without waiting for others to express their opinion, Lord Wade immediately nodded and said, "Helena, you can have this responsibility, it is impressive."

"If that is the case, then you should hurry back to the hotel to prepare and change your clothes."

"Be sure to arrive at Wade Family manor before 9:30!"The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3305-3306

Chapter 3305

Seeing Lord Wade agree, Helena was overjoyed, and almost without hesitation, she said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, I will go back to prepare!"

After speaking, she looked at the two stunned maids and blurted out, "You guys go back with me!"

Only then did the two of them come to their senses, before they had time to think about what happened, they nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, Your Royal Highness!"

Seeing Helena seemed to be okay, Franklin Wade's wretched thoughts reoccupied the high ground.

Just now, he felt that it was a pity not to be able to kiss Helena.

He didn't expect the opportunity to come again.

So, he said hurriedly and diligently, "My dear, I will see you off."

Helena smiled at him slightly and said seriously, "You have more important things, so no need to send me off.”

“Hurry up and go back to Wade’s house with Mr. Wade. I will come back to the hotel to clean up!”

Lord Wade also said, “Franklin, Helena is right. We have to go back quickly.”

“I will change the time of the foreign relative’s visit to 9:30. If it is not good, we will postpone.”

After that, he asked Stephen Thompson again, “Stephen, have you told Charlie about the postponed matter?”

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, “Master, I have already told Young Master Charlie.”

“Okay.” Lord Wade nodded with satisfaction, and sighed, “Today and tomorrow, it is the 12th-year event of my Wade family, and it is also the prelude to my Wade’s family return to the first family in the country.”

“Now the Banks family has fallen, and one another member of the Wade family will return.”

“I believe it will not be long before the Wade family will return to the top of the country!”

When Thomas Wade, Franklin Wade, and even Herbert Wade and others beside him heard this, they were a little unhappy.

Because they know very well that the one Lord Wade talked about is Charlie.

It seems that Lord Wade really regards Charlie as a big helper for the future Wade family!

Franklin Wade was in a very unhappy mood at this time.

Yesterday, his fiancée Helena was taken advantage of Charlie.

The old man not only did not vent his anger on himself, but also stood up for Charlie.

This incident made him angry that he did not sleep well all night.

Lord Wade looked at the time, and it was still 9:20, so he said to Stephen Thompson "Stephen, you should quickly organize a motorcade to pick up Charlie at the Sun family."

"Charlie is the direct son and grandson of our Wade family."

"He must arrive before 9:30 and meet these relatives with us."

"Okay master." Stephen Thompson said quickly, "I'm going to prepare and set out now."

Franklin Wade's heart was even more uncomfortable, "What the hell? Do you still need to pick him up repeatedly? Is he that worthy?"

However, although Franklin Wade was unhappy, he dared not say anything on his face.

Chapter 3306

Stephen Thompson hurriedly called to gather the convoy.

A few minutes later, a convoy had arrived at the gate of the hospital.

After picking up Stephen Thompson, they drove to the Sun family's villa.

.....

By this time, Helena had returned to the hotel.

As she quickly walked to her room, she asked the two maids around her, "Have you reported to Olivia about my heart attack?"

The two looked at each other and didn't say anything.

Because they know that they have been exposed, they dare not talk about anything about Princess Olivia.

Helena said faintly when she saw them not talking, "I know you are all from Olivia, and I don't mean anything else."

"I just think that the matter just now is just a false alarm."

"If you haven't had time to report to Olivia, you don't have to report it for the time being."

With these words, she continued, "Next, I will try my best to recover the trust of the Wade family and continue to promote the marriage with the Wade family, but if Olivia intervenes at this time, it is likely to have a negative impact."

“And I believe that she let you two follow me, not only to monitor me, but also to treat me immediately in the case of my sudden illness and avoid being seen by the Wade family.”

“So if she knows this, she will definitely blame you for not covering it up for me.”

“When the time comes, you will also take responsibility.”

“So, why don’t all three of us think that this has not happened, so that you two don’t have to take responsibility, and I can also have a chance to fight again, don’t you think?”

The two girls exchanged a look, and the Chinese girl said, “Princess Helena, we haven’t been able to talk to Princess Olivia just now.”

“We will delete the video from the mobile phone as if nothing happened!”

“Okay!” Helena was relieved and nodded, “Time is tight. You can help me make up.”

.....

At this time, Charlie had already changed his shirt and suit, and with the help of Stefanie, she tied his tie.

After the whole thing was properly packed, he sat in the living room of Sun’s villa, waiting for the arrival of Stephen Thompson.

Angie’s suit for him is just right in size, as if it were tailored.

And the material, layout and style of the suit are all top-notch.

A suit like this kind of texture, except for the handmade by top masters, no matter how good the brand of ready-made clothes is, it is impossible to achieve such an effect.

And Charlie's temperament has also been greatly improved after changing into such a suit.

Even Orrin looked at it and couldn't help sighing, "Charlie, this suit is a perfect match for you!"

"Not only you look tall, handsome, and heroic, but also has a successful gentleman's temperament, which is an eye-catching."

Charlie laughed and said, "The main reason why the size fits well is just it's like a tailor-made."

Stefanie, beside him, said quickly, "You don't know that people want to fly to London to make a custom suit for this master to measure himself."

"In order to set the size for you, my mother and I specially chose a set of dummy models with a similar size as yours."

"We all rely on memory and adjust the size little by little. Fortunately, it's right."

Charlie said quickly, "Thank you, and Aunt Angie. I usually have a rough life. If you hadn't thought about it, I wouldn't have had this string at all."

Angie smiled and said seriously, "When you return to the Wade family this time, you must not be looked down on by anyone."

"Let them know that you are Bruce's son!"

Charlie nodded solemnly and said, "I know Aunt Angie!"

Stefanie next to her said softly, "Brother Charlie, Dad let people prepare the car, I'll take you to Wade's house later!"

Charlie asked in surprise, "Why did you still prepare the motorcade? Didn't Stephen Thompson say he would pick me up?"

Angie said with a smile, "Your Uncle Orrin said, you are the direct son of the Wade family and the only son of the famous Bruce Wade...."

"...when you go back to the Wade family, you must be beautiful!"

"Therefore, we have to give you the icing on the cake! Be sure to help you put up the countertop!"

Orrin immediately nodded and smiled and said, "That's right! It is of great significance for you to return to the Wade family this time."

"I'm afraid that the rest of the Wade family will deliberately humiliate you with the things you have been wandering for 20 years in Aurous Hill, so I must let them know at the moment you arrive at the Wade family that you are not only the direct son and grandson of the Wade family, but also the future son-in-law of my Sun family."

"Whoever dares to humiliate you for half a word must first weigh enough to qualify!"

Charlie didn't know what to say for a while.

He naturally understood Orrin's kindness, but he was somewhat ashamed.

At this time, the subordinates of the Sun family came to announce, "Master, Madam, Stephen Thompson, the butler of the Wade family is here!"

Hearing that Stephen Thompson was coming, Orrin immediately said, "Just sit down, I will pick Stephen Thompson up!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3307-3308

Chapter 3307

Orrin didn't let others follow, and he got up and walk out the door alone.

As soon as he saw Stephen Thompson, he quickly stepped forward to shake hands with him, and said with a smile, "Stephen! I haven't seen you in a while! You don't come to see me often in Eastcliff!"

Stephen Thompson respectfully said, "Mr. Sun! I have been very busy recently."

"I haven't come to visit you some days, and your complexion is getting better and better!"

Orrin nodded and smiled, "Thanks to Charlie, otherwise you would have to see me in front of my grave."

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson nodded heavily and said, "To this day, Young Master's abilities are unfathomable!"

Orrin sighed, still holding Stephen Thompson's hand and said seriously, "Stephen, thanks to you, you quietly protecting Charlie for so many years, I will never forget this kindness!"

Stephen Thompson bowed his head and said, "Mr. Sun, you are so polite... These are all my own things. Master Bruce is kind to me for recreate."

"Even if I am confused, I should take it for it and do nothing!"

Orrin said with a straight face, "Four seas, you have love and righteousness, Brother Wade is right to see you!"

Stephen Thompson smiled and said respectfully, "Mr. Sun, if you want to say that there is love and righteousness, you are even worse than me!"

Orrin sighed, "Oh! All the world! It is precisely because you and I are both people who attach great importance to love and righteousness that you need to come to see me!"

"You and I were people who were with and by Big Brother Wade in those years."

"We had common experiences and topics. We should often drink two glasses together and recall the past."

With that, Orrin said from his heart again, "To tell you the truth, you have always been a friend in my heart."

"I believe it's the same in the eyes of Brother Wade!"

Hearing this, Stephen Thompson was deeply moved, and his eyes also flooded with tears.

Although he had been with Bruce Wade and often contacted Orrin, he always felt that he was Bruce Wade's subordinate, and Orrin was Bruce Wade's brother.

Therefore, his identity is much lower than Orrin.

Therefore, after Bruce Wade's death, he was not easy to take the initiative to contact Orrin, which seemed to be a little high.

However, seeing that Orrin's words came from the bottom of his heart, he said seriously, "Good Mr. Sun! Don't worry! As long as I don't bother you, I will often come to you for two drinks in the future!"

Orrin nodded repeatedly, "As long as you are here in Eastcliff, you can come anytime!"

"Okay!" Stephen Thompson agreed and asked again, "By the way, Mr. Sun, is Young Master ready?"

"He had to arrive at the Wade family before 9:30, and after 9:30, representatives of his relatives arrived one after another, which is very important to the young master today."

Chapter 3308

Hearing this, Orrin raised his eyebrows slightly, looked at Stephen Thompson, and asked seriously, "Stephen, you have secretly protected Charlie for so many years, is it the day that he should go back to the Wade family?"

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson said firmly, "Mr. Sun, to tell you the truth, after the death of Master Bruce, I, Stephen Thompson, lived for only two things!"

"The first thing is to witness Master Charlie take over the Wade family with my own eyes!"

"The second thing is to witness Young Master's revenge for Master Bruce and his young lady!"

When Orrin heard this, he once again held Stephen Thompson tightly and said with great determination, "Stephen ! I'm exactly the same as you think!"

Stephen Thompson sighed slightly and said, "Mr. Sun, the only worry I have is that Young Master has always wanted to draw a line with the Wade family..."

"If he has always thought so, he is likely to disdain to take over the Wade family."

Orrin laughed, "Don't worry! I drank wine with Charlie for several hours yesterday and told him about Brother Wade's situation in those years."

"He had completely understood Brother Wade's legacy, and he had also decided to become the Lord of the Wade family!"

Stephen Thompson said in great surprise, "Really?! That's... That's really great!! With the strength of Young Master, in time, he will definitely become the Lord of the Wade family!"

Orrin solemnly nodded his head, "As you said, Charlie becoming the Lord of the Wade family is only the first step."

"Avenging Big Brother Wade and Sister Lily and leading the Wade family to the top of the world are the ultimate goal!"

"At that time, I, Orrin Sun, will also do everything I can with my family and carry the sedan chair for Charlie!"

When Stephen Thompson heard this, he immediately knelt down on one knee and said gratefully, "Mr. Sun, you are righteous to Master Bruce, please accept my worship!"

Orrin quickly helped him up and said seriously, "You don't have to do this great gift to me from all over the world."

"From now on, you and I will be comrades-in-arms!"

"We must cooperate fully, cooperate with the inside and outside, and clear all obstacles for Charlie to inherit the Wade family!"

Stephen Thompson nodded his head, "I understand!"

"This is what I have been waiting for the past twenty years!"

Orrin nodded and smiled and said, "Okay! With your words, I'm relieved!"

After that, he said again, "Charlie is ready. You should go in with me first."

"Okay!" Stephen Thompson followed Orrin and stepped into Sun family Villa.

Seeing Charlie, Stephen Thompson said with a surprised face, "Young master, you are so energetic in your outfit today!"

Charlie smiled slightly, "By the way, Mr. Stephen, didn't you say that my relatives will come before 9:00? Why did it change to 9:30 just now?"

Stephen Thompson said awkwardly, "Something happened, so the master postponed the time by half an hour."

After that, Stephen Thompson said again, "It was Princess Helena who had a heart attack and was sent to the hospital."

"It was finally considered that she was out of danger."

Stefanie exclaimed, "Huh? Did Helena really had a heart attack?"

Stephen Thompson nodded and said, "Yes, and the situation was very dangerous at first."

"The doctor said that she wouldn't survive for a few hours, but she was better afterwards."

Stefanie looked at Charlie and said in surprise, "Brother Charlie , you are too awesome!"

"That Helena must have bitten the middle finger of her right hand, right?"

Charlie smiled and said, "If you don't say it through, you can't say it. It's boring to always say it so straightforwardly."

Stephen Thompson smiled and said, "I just noticed that Princess Helena's right finger did have bitten marks, or the young master is awesome, the skillful hand is back to spring!"

Orrin and Angie listened confusedly. Angie couldn't help asking, "What are you talking about? Why don't I understand?"

Stefanie smiled and said, "Mom, this matter is a long story."

"Let me tell you after I send brother Charlie back!"

Stephen Thompson also said, "Young master, it's already nine o'clock. Let's start quickly."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said to Stefanie, "Stefanie, since Mr. Stephen is here, don't send me off, lest you toss."

Stefanie immediately refused, "No! Then I want to go too! It's not far away anyway!"

Orrin also said, "Stefanie, today is the Wade family meeting with relatives, they don't receive other guests, so don't join in the fun."

Stefanie pouted, "If it's really a big deal, then I won't get out of the car when I get to the place, and I will send brother Charlie to Wade's house, and I will directly follow our family's motorcade back."

Orrin smiled helplessly, "Okay, since you are willing to toss, then go."

"Hehe." Stefanie stuck out her tongue and hurriedly took Charlie's arm and said, "Brother Charlie, let's go!"

Chapter 3309-3312

Chapter 3309

Since both the Wade family and the Sun family had prepared a motorcade, Orrin simply let the Sun family's team follow, which was regarded as helping Charlie to support more scenes.

On the way to the Wade's house, Stephen Thompson drove in person and reported to Charlie in detail about the accident that happened to Helena today.

Charlie had only three feelings in his heart after listening.

First, Helena is indeed ill-intentioned in concealing the truth;

Second, the Wade Family's throwing the pot is indeed shameless;

Third, Helena and the Wade family can reach a consensus on this basis, proving that they are both human beings, and there is no fuel-efficient lamp.

In addition, he can also infer that Helena's current situation should be difficult.

On China's side, it was difficult for the Wade family to let her marry the family, and on the Nordic side, it was impossible for her to return easily to the royal family who used her mother's life to threaten her.

She is now in a dilemma.

But Charlie didn't even think about helping Helena.

Firstly, he was unfamiliar, and secondly, although Helena was pitiful, she was too scheming.

This kind of person is not suitable for excessive contact.

When the twenty Rolls-Royce drove into Wade's house, Lord Wade had already led all the Wade family members to greet him in person.

In the crowd, Helena has changed into a very formal dress, and put on a very decent makeup.

It is completely invisible that she has just walked through the ghost door.

At this time, Lord Wade was particularly excited.

Lord Wade had many expectations for Charlie.

It was not only because of Charlie's unpredictable strength, but also the destructive aura that Charlie showed to the Banks Family and in the Middle East.

It is because Charlie has mastered the mystery that brings people back to life and youth.

Leaving aside Helena's biting her finger to save her life, it happened more than half an hour ago.

During this period, the upper class of Eastcliff has been trying to figure out how Orrin turned from a dying patient with advanced pancreatic cancer into a miracle.

Healed, and even twenty years younger.

It's a pity that Orrin is tight-lipped and doesn't say anything to the outside world, even if it's his friend, he doesn't reveal anything.

Others don't know the reason, but Lord Wade knows.

He knew that all of this was done by Charlie.

Because Charlie had said to Cynthia Wade himself.

Just rushing to this point, Lord Wade was also willing to bow down to Charlie.

If being humble and kneeling can earn a life extension of twenty years, it is simply the most cost-effective business he has ever done in his life.

However, everyone in the Wade family except Cynthia Wade didn't understand what the old man was trying to do.

It was enough to let Charlie come back, after all, it was Wade Family's protagonist.

But the old man personally took all Charlie's uncles, aunts, and brothers and sisters to welcome Charlie at the gate.

This kind of surrendering status made this group of people unacceptable.

However, Lord Wade didn't say anything, and didn't let them say anything too.

When other people saw him coming out, they could only follow honestly.

Soon, Charlie's vehicle stopped in front of the Wade family's house.

Through the car window, Charlie looked at Lord Wade outside the window, and the Wade family in two rows behind him, feeling a lot of emotion in his heart.

Chapter 3310

Back then, his parents left Eastcliff with their own anger, and none of the Wade family at that time saw each other.

Twenty years later, he returned, but the Wade family, under the leadership of the old man, all came out to line up to greet him.

The comparison between the two is ironic!

At this time, Charlie was sitting in the car and didn't mean to get off.

Stephen Thompson had already gotten out of the car in front of him, hurried to the door of Charlie's side, took the initiative to open the door, and respectfully said, "Young Master, we are here."

Charlie nodded lightly.

He was still not in a hurry to get off the car, but said to Stefanie, "Stefanie, thank you for your hard work for sending me all the way here."

Stefanie smiled sweetly, "Brother Charlie, why are you polite with me."

Charlie nodded and said, "Then I will go first. You don't have to trouble yourself to pick me up at night. After I'm done, I will ask Stephen Thompson to send me back."

"Okay." Stefanie said hurriedly, "Then I will wait for you at home."

Charlie replied, and then walked out of the Rolls Royce.

At this time, Franklin Wade was almost mad.

He lowered his voice and complained to his father, Thomas Wade beside him, "I don't know why Charlie has such a big shelf!”

“Grandpa took us out to meet him personally.”

“He didn’t get out of the car quickly, and we still had to wait.”

“He even let Stephen Thompson open the door for him! It’s too good to show off!”

Thomas Wade glared at him and shouted in a low voice, “Take care of your own mouth! Don’t you know the words come out from your mouth?”

Franklin Wade could only shut his mouth angrily.

Although he was still full of dissatisfaction, he did not dare to show too much of it.

When Charlie got out of the car, he didn’t say hello to the Wade family immediately.

Instead, he stood outside the car, turned around and waved to Stefanie in the car.

After watching the Rolls Royce in the car, he turned around.

Most Wade family members were dissatisfied with Charlie’s performance, but Lord Wade was not at all angry.

Instead, he stepped forward very excitedly and took Charlie’s hand, choked up and said, “Charlie, you left home for so long and finally came back.”

“Oh! God bless my Wade family, now that I can live to see you return to the Wade family, even if I die, I now have no regrets!”

Charlie knew that the old man’s remarks were not very credible.

However, Charlie did not refute his face, and said politely, “Grandpa, for so many years, you have been worried.”

Lord Wade said with emotion, “Nothing is going to happen, just come back! Just come back!”

As he said, he hurriedly took Charlie’s hand, faced the Wade family behind him, and said enthusiastically, “Come on, Charlie, you have been away from home for too long.”

“You may not remember many people. Grandpa will introduce you to them. “

At this time, Charlie found that Helena in the crowd had a pair of blue eyes staring at him without blinking.

Charlie and her gaze intertwined briefly.

Seeing her eyes filled with gratitude and pleading, Charlie treated it as if he did not see it, and immediately turned to look at his uncle, Thomas Wade.

Because the first person the old man was going to introduce to Charlie was his eldest son, Charlie’s uncle Thomas Wade.

Although Charlie and Thomas Wade hadn’t seen each other for 20 years, after all, the appearance of middle-aged people had not changed much, so he could recognize them at a glance.

Lord Wade pointed to Thomas Wade and said to Charlie, "Charlie, this is your uncle, do you remember?"

"Yes, I remember." Charlie nodded, also out of observance of etiquette, and took the initiative to speak, "Hello, uncle, it's been a long time."

Although Thomas Wade is unhappy with Charlie, but the superficial work is still in place, he sighed, "Charlie, you finally came back, uncle is really too happy!"

"For so many years, you don't know how much we worry about you."

Charlie nodded and said politely, "Thank you, uncle."

Thomas Wade smiled pretentiously and said, "Charlie, how long do you plan to stay in Eastcliff this time?"

"Let your Brother Franklin take you around in Eastcliff!"

Thomas Wade's remarks are also what many people want to ask Charlie.

They all want to know what Charlie plans to come this time.

He came back to Aurous Hill after attending an ancestor worship ceremony, or he just didn't leave when he came.

Especially Thomas Wade, he knows that the old man will soon hand over power when he is old.

Then he will naturally be the next Patriarch, and Franklin Wade will naturally be the candidate for the next Patriarch.

However, killing Charlie at this time will more or less definitely affect the future development direction.

Therefore, he must first understand Charlie's intentions.

Charlie couldn't hear the meaning of Thomas Wade's words, and smiled slightly, "Uncle, I came back this time to recognize my ancestor and return to my ancestry."

"After I recognize my ancestor and return to my ancestry, I will become a member of the Wade family again."

"So, to this question..."

After speaking, he smiled again, "Even if I don't live here often in the future, I have to let Grandpa reserve a room for me, because I will definitely come back often!"

Chapter 3311

Hearing Charlie's words, Thomas Wade was extremely depressed.

He understands what Charlie meant.

From now on, whether he lives in the Wade Family, whether he stays in Eastcliff or not, Charlie has officially returned to the Wade Family.

Thomas Wade cursed inwardly, "This kid is a bit disgusting if he does like this..."

However, in front of the old man, he did not dare to say anything.

So, he could only smile and said, "Okay, okay! You can come back anytime!"

The old man then introduced to Charlie his third uncle Marco Wade, fourth uncle Wilbert Wade, aunt Cynthia Wade, and younger sister Claudette Wade.

When introducing Cynthia Wade, Cynthia's expression was very attentive, and she said excitedly, "Charlie, Auntie has been waiting for you for so many years, and you are finally back!"

"Your parents are in the spirit of heaven, they will definitely be very pleased!"

As she said, she made a few hypocritical sobs, but no tears came down.

Charlie has long been accustomed to Cynthia's set.

After all Cynthia Wade is a noble family member of Wade family.

In the popular words nowadays, this is definitely an old princess.

The old princess has always been arrogant and domineering, and she never needs to bow her head to anyone, so the acting skills are not very good right now, but it is understandable.

After all, this kind of old princess doesn't usually have the energy to study and improve acting skills.

Charlie could also see that she had tried her best to act, but her tears did not listen.

So Charlie smiled slightly and said politely, "Thank you, auntie."

But Claudette Wade, who had been silent next to her, had her eyes flushed without saying a word.

When Lord Wade introduced her, her tears could not be stretched. She took Charlie's hand while crying, and choked with sobs, "Charlie, you finally came back this time, please don't leave again... ."

Looking at his Aunt Claudette who was about forty years old in front of him, Charlie couldn't help but think of his childhood.

His Aunt Claudette was a whole round older than him.

When Charlie was still a child, she was also young.

At that time, he was very sticky to her because she would take herself to play with her every day after school.

And she is very clingy to his father, she has the best relationship with his father.

Charlie's father also spoiled the youngest sister the most.

He basically treated her as a daughter and gave her whatever she wanted.

So although the siblings are much different in age, the relationship is indeed very harmonious.

In Charlie's memory, Aunt Claudette had a very lively and cheerful personality, and she didn't think so much like Cynthia Wade.

At that time, Cynthia Wade approached Thomas Wade and deliberately alienated his father Bruce Wade.

The reason was that Cynthia Wade felt that in the future, the heir of the Wade family would definitely be Thomas Wade, the eldest son, so she had already developed a sense of standing in line.

Claudette Wade had never had those complicated ideas.

When Charlie left home with his parents, his Aunt Claudette was studying abroad.

Charlie's memories of her still remain in the scene when she graduated from high school and everyone sent her abroad.

Aunt Claudette at that time was still a young girl, and now, she has reached the age of no doubt.

Seeing the true feelings of his aunt, Charlie couldn't help sighing for a while, and said respectfully, "Auntie, don't worry, I will come back this time to recognize my ancestors and return to the family."

"Even if I leave Eastcliff temporarily in the future, I won't broke my connection with the Wade family."

The meaning of Charlie's words was very clear.

After returning to the Wade family this time, he will definitely return to Aurous Hill, but he has officially recognized his ancestor and returned to the family, and will formally become a member of the Wade family's direct line again.

Hearing this, Lord Wade and Claudette Wade's ears were naturally very happy, but other people were very upset when they heard it.

Charlie's recognizing the ancestor and returning to the family means that there will be one more competitor in the future family property battle.

After the old man took Charlie to say hello to these elders one by one, the rest were those who were equal to Charlie.

The oldest is Franklin Wade, followed by Herbert Wade, and several other younger siblings.

Except for Franklin Wade and Herbert Wade, the rest of the rich second generations who had been pampered since childhood didn't have any feelings about Charlie, a relative who had been away from home for twenty years.

Everyone was just a few words on the surface.

Seeing that Charlie and everyone had known each other one by one, Lord Wade looked at the time and said happily, "It's a great thing for Charlie to come back."

"Let's go in and sit down. Let's talk about the past together."

"When the time is up, the relatives should also come to visit us."

"Seeing Lord Wade's order, everyone moved to the main hall of the Wade Family Villa."

Helena has been by Franklin Wade's side, looking for an opportunity to communicate with Charlie alone, but seeing the situation at this time is unlikely, so she had to give up temporarily.

At this time, inside the main hall of the Wade Family Villa.

In the center of the huge main hall, in accordance with the ancestor's instructions, a fan shape has been used with multiple yellow rosewood chairs.

The center of the fan shape is the old man's position, and beside the hands of the position, there are more than ten chairs.

These are the seats of direct members of the Wade family.

And around the fan-shaped, there are hundreds of simple folding chairs neatly arranged, these are all seats prepared for the relatives.

Lord Wade pulled Charlie to the main seat, pointed directly at the position on the right hand side, and said to Charlie, "Charlie, if your father is alive, the position on my right hand side will be his."

"Now he is gone, after returning to the Wade Family, you will naturally take this position!"

Lord Wade directly let Charlie sit on his right hand.

This move surprised everyone at once.

Because according to the rules, when the relatives come to visit, the father sits in the upright position, the eldest son sits in the lower left position, the second son sits in the lower right position, and the son's generation sits next to each other before the grandchildren's turn.

After the grandchildren have also sat down, the daughter and granddaughter sit next to each other on the outermost side.

As for grandsons and granddaughters, people with foreign surnames are not allowed to participate, so Cynthia Wade and Claudette Wade's husband and children are not there.

Since the second son Bruce Wade has passed away, according to the old rules, the position of Bruce Wade should be postponed to the younger son, Marco Wade.

At the last ancestor worship ceremony twelve years ago, Marco Wade did indeed replace Bruce Wade.

But this time, Lord Wade didn't give Marco Wade a chance.

Thomas Wade felt that the old man had favored Charlie too much, so he couldn't help but speak, "Dad, Charlie just came back, and I understand you feel sorry for him, but the rules are already set and you can't change it at will."

"Bruce is gone, this position should be taken by Marco, Charlie should sit with his cousin Franklin!"

Marco Wade felt a little more at ease.

Seeing that Charlie was about to take his place, he felt most upset in his heart.

But he didn't dare to argue with the old man, but fortunately, his eldest brother stood up to be fair to himself.

Lord Wade sneered at Thomas Wade's words, and said lightly, "The rules are all set by people! I am the head of the Wade family."

“I will arrange whatever I say.”

After that, he looked at Charlie and said without a doubt, “Charlie, just sit here!”

Of course Charlie had no opinion.

Now he is not only going to sit next to Lord Wade, in the near future, he will replace Lord Wade and sit in his position.

Therefore, offending the uncle and the third uncle today is just an appetizer.

One day, he will offend the Wade family up and down.

But he doesn't care, as the saying goes, if you want to wear a crown, you must bear its weight.

If he want the Wade family to surrender, he must first offend them all.

Then, they will be subdued and subdued one by one with their bad temper.

Let them learn to bend over, learn to bend their knees, and learn to surrender!

Only in this way can oneself be able to secure the position of the Patriarch of the Wade Family.

So, he smiled slightly and said without thinking, “Okay! Then I'll sit here!”

After that, he just sat down!
